INDEX

Agricultural industries in Puerto Rico efforts to stimulate, 51 find outlet in U. S. markets, 82–83 neglect of, 149–150
  status of, prior to 1941, 48–49
Agriculture, density of males employed in: U. S., Egypt, and Puerto Rico, 110, 116
Alaska-U. S. relationship, 11, 12
AYALA, FRANCISCO, The Transformation of the Spanish Heritage, 104–109

Banking, see Financial Institutions in Puerto Rican Development Beebe, Gilbert, cited, 140
Beijer, G., cited, 134
Belaval, José, cited, 140
Birth control in Puerto Rico acceptance of, related to social factors, 127 Catholic opposition to, ineffective, 102, 138–139 desired by women, 118
  extent of, 140
  facilities for, 137
    shortcomings of, 142–144 factors discouraging, 140–144
  factors encouraging, 137–140
  is class oriented, 53 Birth rate in Puerto Rico, 118 excess over death rate, 24
Burke, Edmund, 42

Capital supply of Puerto Rico, 58–59
Clark, Charles E., cited, 39
Cofresí, Emilio, cited, 139, 140
Combs, Jerry W., Jr., cited, 118
COMMONWEALTH CONSTITUTION, THE, Victor Gutiérrez-Franqui and Henry Wells, 33–41 Commonwealth of Puerto Rico
  a compromise, 27
  a new political creation, 6, 12, 31, 33, 43–44, 79, 110
  a possible model for other dependent areas, 31, 33, 44 compared with Commonwealth of the Philippines, 11–12 compared with Guam, 13 compared with Virgin Islands, 12–13 continues former economic and fiscal relations, 22
  date of proclamation of, 35 features of, 10
  implications of, for Latin America, 13–14 implications of, under U.N. Charter, 14–15 result of inventive statesmanship, 41 within the American Union, 5, 10, 21, 31, 43
  See also Government of Puerto Rico
Commonwealth status foreshadowed by Felix Frankfurter, 41
  variations of, 9–10
Compact between U. S. and Puerto Rico, see Federal Relations Act; Public Law 600
CONGRESSIONAL CONSERVATISM AND THE COMMONWEALTH RELATIONSHIP, Pedro Muñoz Amato, 23–32
Constitution-making, aims of, 42–43 Constitution of Puerto Rico amendment process for, 40–41 congressional debate on, 25–26 bill of rights, 36–37, 46 effective date of, 6 framing and adoption of, 34–35 general excellence of, 45–46 governmental structure established by, 37–40 human rights section eliminated by Congress, 26–27, 46 interpretation of, 6
  legal basis of, 33–34
  nature of, 35–36
  protects individual and minority rights, 6 text of, 153–166
  text of preamble, 24–25
  world significance of, 47
  See also Government of Puerto Rico
CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PUERTO RICO, 153–166 Culture of Puerto Rico
  an obstacle to economic change, 56
  as affected by industrialization, 95–103, 107–108
  as affected by relations with U. S., 104–109 coffee hacienda culture, 98–100 Hispanic background of, 96 homogeneous population, 58 modification of language, 104, 108–109, 111 poverty and prosperity juxtaposed, 150–151 psychology of workers, 88 results of fusion of Anglo-American and Spanish, 31, 110–111 ritual kinship (compadrazgo), 98, 99, 101 rural changes, 96 small mountain farmers, 97–98
  socioeconomic mobility among tobacco farmers, 97–98 lack of, among coffee workers, 99 sought by sugar workers through labor union, 100–101 sugar plantation cultures, 100–102 upper class culture, 102
  urban changes, 95–96

CULTURE PATTERNS OF PUERTO RICO, Julian H. Steward, 95–103

Davis, James P., quoted, 112
DAVIS, KINGSLEY, Puerto Rico: A Crowded Island, 116–122
Davis, Kingsley, cited, 110, 118, 120, 130
Death rate in Puerto Rico reduction of, 24, 117, 118
Dependent areas
  new forms of association for, 9–10
  Puerto Rico as possible model for, 31, 33, 44, 55–59, 66–69, 74–75 status of, in U. S. orbit, 9–15 DEVELOPMENT THROUGH DEMOCRACY, Luis Muñoz Marín, 1–8 Divorce
  an element of social change, 106 extent of, linked with nature of marriage, 107
Dominion status not applicable to Puerto Rico, 33, 43

Economic development in Puerto Rico, see Puerto Rican development since 1941 Economic Development Administration (Puerto Rico)
  a government department, 63 function and terms of, 64
EMERSON, RUPERT, Puerto Rico and American Policy Toward Dependent Areas, 9–15
Emigration, see Migration from Puerto Rico
Eugenic sterilization in Puerto Rico, 139–140 European federation
  may include dependent territories, 44 temper of constitution-makers for, 42

Family patterns in Puerto Rico
  among coffee workers, 99
  among sugar workers, 101
  changing ideals, 139 decrease in size, 102 husband-wife attitudes, 141–142
  in the upper class, 102
  modified by smallness of landholdings, 97
  not controlled by Catholicism, 102, 138–139
  See also Divorce; Eugenic sterilization in Puerto Rico; Marriage Federal Relations Act approved by people of Puerto Rico, 34 contents of, 27
  embodies part of Organic Act of 1917, 21, 24, 27 is part of the compact between Puerto Rico and U. S., 34 question of method of amending, 27–29
  See also Public Law 600
FELDMAN, ARNOLD S., and PAUL K. HATT, Social Structure as Affecting Fertility in Puerto Rico, 123–129
FERNÓS-ISERN, ANTONIO, From Colony to Commonwealth, 16–22
Fernós-Isern, Antonio, quoted, 104
Fertility, see Human fertility in Puerto Rico
FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS IN PUERTO RICAN DEVELOPMENT, Beardsley Ruml, 91–94
Frankfurter, Felix, quoted, 41
Freedom
  cherished by Puerto Ricans, 2, 6, 8 FRIEDRICH, CARL J., The World Significance of the New Constitution, 42–47
Friedrich, Carl J., 113
FROM COLONY TO COMMONWEALTH, Antonio Fernós-Isern, 16–22

Galbraith, J. K., 113
GALBRAITH, J. K., and CAROLYN SHAW SOLO, Puerto Rican Lessons in Economic Development, 55–59
Geographical characteristics of Puerto Rico area, 111, 114
  crossroads between North and South America, 110 tropical location, 56
Goldsen, Rose, cited, 133
Government of Puerto Rico administrative effectiveness of, 23–24 emergency powers of Governor restricted, 45 minority opposition needed, 45
    provided for, 37–38
  patterned after United States system, 44 progress in self-government since 1946, 5–6 safeguarded against abuse of power, 44–45
  structure of, 37–40
  See also Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; Constitution of Puerto Rico Government operation of industry
  Puerto Rican experience with, 61
Guam, political status of, 13
Gutiérrez-Franqui, Victor, cited, 46
GUTIÉRREZ-FRANQUI, VICTOR, and HENRY WELLS, The Commonwealth Constitution, 33–41

HAMILTON, WALTON, The Puerto Rican Economy Linked with the Mainland, 76–84 HANSEN, MILLARD, Training and Research in Puerto Rico, 110–115
HATT, PAUL K., see Feldman, Arnold S., jt. author Hatt, Paul K., 113
  cited, 118, 124, 128, 138, 139
Hawaii-U. S. relationship, 11, 12
Hedrick, E. H., 104
Hill, George, 113
HILL, REUBEN, see Stycos, J. Mayone, jt. author Hill, Reuben, 113

Hitler, Adolf, 43
Hoover, Herbert, 12
Human fertility in Puerto Rico
  as related to social structure, 123–129 factors tending to reduction in, 118
  See also Birth control in Puerto Rico; Birth rate in Puerto Rico; Population of Puerto Rico Human rights section of Puerto Rican Constitution based on U.N. Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 26, 46 deleted by Congress, 26–27, 46

Illiteracy in Puerto Rico proportion of, 137
Income per capita in Puerto Rico, 137 almost doubled in twelve years, 52 increased but still low, 24, 121
Independence, see Political status of Puerto Rico
INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT IN PUERTO RICO, Teodoro Moscoso, 60–69 Industrial development problems balance between welfare services and economic development, 66–67, 74–75 government participation, 67, 73–74 governmental climate, 68–69 human element, 68
  labor efficiency and attitudes, 85–90 physical facilities, 67–68
Industrialization in Puerto Rico aids to industry, 7–8, 51, 62–63, 68–69 appropriations for, 64–65
  as affected by labor situation, 85–90
  as affecting culture, 95–103, 107–108 attraction of mainland industries and capital, 51, 62–63, 68–69, 74, 83
  background setting of, 60
  capital requirements for, 62, 74 cost of providing jobs, 62
  defined, 95
  experience with government operation, 61 present status of, 65
  prospects for, 66
  Puerto Rico Industrial Development Company administrative difficulties of, 63 created in 1942, 51
    function and operation of, 60–63, 64–65, 92
  start of, 147–148
  See also Puerto Rican development since 1941
Industry, classification of location of, 85
International trade brings prosperity, 82
Isard, Walter, 113

Jackson, Robert H., quoted, 35
Janer, Jose L., cited, 118

Keyfitz, Nathan, cited, 126
Kipling, Rudyard, 79

Labor: price of, defined, 85
Labor in Puerto Rico
  as affected by out-migration, 87
  as affected by wage incentives, workloads, and rural values, 88–90 necessity for training of, 83–84 protected by constitutional bill of rights, 37 worker attitudes, 88–90
LABOR'S ROLE IN INDUSTRIALIZATION, Simon Rottenberg, 85–90 Land in Puerto Rico distribution of, since 1941, 51
  former monopoly of, 49
  legal limitations on ownership of, 19, 50
  uneconomic holdings have modified family patterns, 97 Legal system of Puerto Rico and social life, 106–107
Leontief, Wassily, 113
Level of living in Puerto Rico affected by overpopulation, 120–122 higher than ever before, 52
Lewis, W. Arthur, cited, 120 Life expectancy in Puerto Rico increase in, 117
Lleras, Alberto, cited, 113

Maccoby, Eleanor, 113
Manners, Robert A., 95
Marriage: nature of, in Puerto Rico, Cuba, and Mexico, 97, 107
Marx, Daniel, Jr., 113 Migrants from Puerto Rico abuses by recruiting agencies, 132, 135 characteristics of, 132–133 concentrated in New York City, 131, 132 financial contribution of, to Puerto Rico, 134 geographical distribution of, 130–131, 132 government assistance to, 135–136 nearly all go to U. S., 117, 130 permanent urban settlers, 132 seasonal farm workers, 119
    work agreements of, 131–132
MIGRATION AND PUERTO RICO'S POPULATION PROBLEM, Clarence Senior, 130–136 Migration from Puerto Rico
  a demographic escape valve, 117, 119–120, 133–134 extent of, recent, 24, 117, 131
  factors encouraging, 131
  government policy regarding, 135–136 possible disadvantages of, 53, 87, 134–135 reduces unemployment, 52, 134
Mills, C. W., cited, 133
Minority rights protected by Constitution of Puerto Rico, 6

Mintz, Sidney, 95
Morales, Julio, 113
Moscoso, Teodoro, Industrial Development in Puerto Rico, 60–69
Most-favored-nation clause prevents free trade between U. S. and independent nations, 4–5
Muñoz Amato, Pedro, Congressional Conservatism and the Commonwealth Relationship, 23–32
Muñoz Amato, Pedro, cited, 26
Muñoz Marín, Luis, Development Through Democracy, 1–8 Muñoz Marín, Luis, 14, 15, 44, 111, 150, 151
  quoted, 25, 93, 110

National income of Puerto Rico proportion of, originating in federal expenditures, 58 windfall during war years, 66 Nationalism in Puerto Rico emotional content of, 1–2 not shared by common people, 2–3 Natural resources
  lack of, not fatal to prosperity, 82 scarcity of, in Puerto Rico, 56, 78, 91, 116

Ondegeest, J. J., cited, 134

Padilla, Elena, 95
Pagán de Colón, P. A., cited, 132
Patriotism emotional content of, in Puerto Rico, 1
Perloff, Harvey S., Transforming the Economy, 48–54
Perloff, Harvey S., 113 Philippines, see Puerto Rico and Philippines compared Picó, Rafael, The Role of Planning in Puerto Rico, 70–75
Picó, Rafael, quoted, 110
Piñero, Jesús, 4, 5
Planning, see Puerto Rican development since 1941
Point Four: Puerto Rico as training ground for, 13–14, 111–113
Political stability of Puerto Rico, 56–57 Political status of Puerto Rico
  as related to economic well-being, 1–8, 30, 33, 50, 79 history of, under Spanish regime, 16–17 history of, under U. S. regime, 17–21, 33–34 independence
    decided against, 146 economically impossible, 1–2, 4–5 emotional desire for, 1–2, 78
    not desired by majority of Puerto Ricans, 31
  nonincorporated territory, may be changed, 30 non-self-governing territory, may be changed, 14–15, 31 possible alternatives, 3–4, 78–79 possible legal interpretations of, 30–31 statehood expected when U. S. took the island, 19 financial burden of, too great, 30
    not desired by majority of Puerto Ricans, 31
    ultimately likely, 145–146
  status of Resident Commissioner in U. S. Congress, 11, 20, 29
  See also Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; Puerto Ricans Political system of Puerto Rico adapted to U. S. institutions and practices, 105–106 Popular Democratic party (Puerto Rico) attitudes toward, of various social groups, 98, 99, 101, 102 initiated economic and social reform, 6–8, 50, 57 political strength of, 23, 37, 57 separates economic problems from political status, 3, 50 Population growth in many regions of the world, 118–119 Population of Puerto Rico, 116 density, 116
  growth, 24, 116–118
  See also Birth control in Puerto Rico; Birth rate in Puerto Rico; Death rate in Puerto Rico Population pressure in Puerto Rico, 24, 76 hinders economic advancement, 120–122
  See also Migration from Puerto Rico Production and productivity in Puerto Rico increase in, 52, 120
  still low, 121
Prospects of Birth Control in Puerto Rico, The, J. Mayone Stycos and Reuben Hill, 137–144
Public Law 600
  a compact between U. S. and Puerto Rico, 5, 6, 21, 24, 34 dates of adoption and approval of, 34 implications of, 33
  provisions of, 34
  ratified by Puerto Rican people, 34
  vests local government in Puerto Rican people, 21, 34
  See also Federal Relations Act Public policy of Puerto Rico conditioned by population pressure and island status, 77 development of trade with mainland, 82–84 economic development, 78 political direction of, 78–79 regarding migration, 135–136
  training of labor, 83–84
  transportation facilitation, 80–81

Puerto Rican development since 1941 appraisal of, 52–54, 120–122, 145–152
background setting of, 1–8, 24, 48–50, 60
broad significance of, 31–32 distribution unsatisfactory, 91 financial institutions, 92–94 government participation necessary, 73–74 hindered by overpopulation, 120–122 lessons of, for other underdeveloped areas, 55–59, 66–69, 74–75 linked with U. S. economy, 52, 66, 74 main features of, 50–52 planning of, 52, 60–61 agencies for and methods of, 70–75 popular support of, 8 priorities for, 66–67, 74–75
unfinished tasks, 53–54, 121
See also Industrial development problems; Industrialization in Puerto Rico Puerto Rican economy contrasted with mainland, 78, 79 depressed, 24, 48–50, 60, 76 hampered by distance from mainland, 77 prosperity linked with U. S. economy, 52, 66, 74, 77
Puerto Ricans accept responsibility for betterment of, 151
PUERTO RICAN ECONOMY LINKED WITH THE MAINLAND, THE, Walton Hamilton, 76–84
Puerto Rican Federal Relations Act, see Federal Relations Act
PUERTO RICAN LESSONS IN ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, J. K. Galbraith and Carolyn Shaw Solo, 55–59
Puerto Rican-U. S. relationship characterized by affection and mutual respect, 5 congressional conservatism in, 24–32 economic and fiscal exemption from federal taxation, 4, 11, 22, 29–30, 62 federal aid for public works and services, 4 free trade, 4, 5, 22, 30, 58 inclusion in U. S. tariff, monetary, and fiscal systems, 12, 22, 48, 58, 110 no exploitation, 107 possible because P. R. was nonincorporated territory, 30 implications of, for Alaska and Hawaii, 11 insular government comparable to state government, 20–21 political, 105–106
See also Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; Federal Relations Act; Political status of Puerto Rico; Public Law 600
Puerto Ricans are U. S. citizens, 5, 12, 20, 43 have free access to U. S., 12 resident in Puerto Rico have no vote in Presidential elections, 11, 43, 145
See also Migrants from Puerto Rico
Puerto Rico
as a possible financial center, 94
as research laboratory, 113–115
as training ground for technical assistance, 13–14, 111–113 federal technical assistance to, 57 frontier characteristics of, 88–90, 110–111 homogeneous population in, 58
political stability of, 56–57
PUERTO RICO: A CROWDED ISLAND, Kingsley Davis, 116–122
PUERTO RICO AND AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD DEPENDENT AREAS, Rupert Emerson, 9–15 Puerto Rico and Philippines compared re Commonwealth status, 11–12 re economic relations with U. S., 4–5 re U. S. influence on language, 108–109

Religion in Puerto Rico
among coffee workers, 99–100
among small mountain farmers, 98
among sugar workers, 101
assumes recreational character, 98, 99–100, 138 85 per cent Catholic, 137
in the upper class, 102
indifference to, 138–139
Rodríguez Bou, Ismael, cited, 113
Rogers, William D., cited, 39
ROLE OF PLANNING IN PUERTO RICO, THE, Rafael Picó, 70–75
ROTTENBERG, SIMON, Labor's Role in Industrialization, 85–90
RUML, BEARDSLEY, Financial Institutions in Puerto Rican Development, 91–94

Samoa (American), political status of, 13
Savigny, Friedrich Karl von, 42
Scheele, Raymond L., 95
SENIOR, CLARENCE, Migration and Puerto Rico's Population Problem, 130–136 Senior, Clarence, 113
cited, 130, 133, 136
Shapiro, Harry, 113
Skinner, Carleton, quoted, 13
Smith, Adam, 81, 82
Social science research in Puerto Rico, 113–115
SOCIAL STRUCTURE AS AFFECTING FERTILITY IN PUERTO RICO, Arnold S. Feldman and Paul K. Hatt, 123–129
SOLO, CAROLYN SHAW, see Galbraith, J. K., jt. author Standard of living, see Level of living in Puerto Rico Statute of Federal Relations, see Federal Relations Act

Sterilization, see Eugenic sterilization in Puerto Rico
STEWARD, JULIAN H., Culture Patterns of Puerto Rico, 95–103
Steward, Julian H., 113
Stycos, J. Mayone, cited, 139, 140
STYCOS, J. MAYONE, and REUBEN HILL, The Prospects of Birth Control in Puerto Rico, 137–144

Tax incentives to investors advantage and disadvantage of, 68–69
Toynbee, Arnold, 112
TRAINING AND RESEARCH IN PUERTO RICO, Millard Hansen, 110–115
TRANSFORMATION OF THE SPANISH HERITAGE, THE, Francisco Ayala, 104–109 TRANSFORMING THE ECONOMY, Harvey S. Perloff, 48–54
Transportation between Puerto Rico and mainland, 79–81, 131
Truman, Harry S., 111
Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands political status of, 13
TUGWELL, R. G., What Next for Puerto Rico? 145–152
Turner, Frederick Jackson, quoted, 111
Tydings, Millard E., 4

Underdeveloped areas
  Puerto Rican differences from, 56–59
  Puerto Rican lessons for, 55–59, 66–69, 74–75
  Puerto Rican similarities to, 55–56
Unemployment in Puerto Rico, 24, 50, 86, 121 reduced by emigration, 52, 134
United Nations: place of Puerto Rico under Charter, 14–15, 31
Urbanization in Puerto Rico, 95–96

Virgin Islands, political status of, 12–13

Wage rate
  as incentive to output, 88–89
  in Puerto Rico and U. S. compared, 86–87 Wages in Puerto Rico
  prior to 1941, 50
WELLS, HENRY, see Gutiérrez-Franqui, Victor, jt. author
Wells, Henry, cited, 46
WHAT NEXT FOR PUERTO RICO? R. G. Tugwell, 145–152
Wolf, Eric, 95
WORLD SIGNIFICANCE OF THE NEW CONSTITUTION, THE, Carl J. Friedrich, 42–47

Yates, F., cited, 126

Zurcher, Arnold J., editor, 42

INDEX

Adolescence, schizophrenia in, 51
Alcoholism
  as an illness, 77–79
  extent of, 57
Alexander, F., cited, 64; quoted, 59, 60
ALLEN, FREDERICK H., Special Problems of Infancy and Childhood, 65–73
ALVORD, E. C., JR., see Weinstein, Edwin A., jt. author
AMERICAN CHILD PSYCHIATRIC CLINICS, George E. Gardner, 126–135

Baer, Walter H., cited, 86
Balzac, Honoré de, 38
BARTON, WALTER E., Hospital Services for the Mentally Ill, 107–115
Barton, Walter E., cited, 109
Baum, Vicki, cited, 75
Beers, Clifford Whittingham, 158 Behavior
  basic principles of, 47–48, 74
  disordered community systems for dealing with, 150–151 data regarding, are available, 151–153 family connection with, 152, 154–155
    research regarding, 151–157
  emotionally immature, 75
  manic-depressive, 52–54
  neurotic, 59–62
  of patients with brain damage, 35–39 of sexual deviants, 76–77 personality background connected with types of, 39 psychopathic, 76
  schizophrenic, 51–52
Bender, M. B., 40
Billings, Edward G.
  cited, 82, 138, 146, 148
Birth trauma, 29
  protection from, 160
BLAIN, DANIEL, Private Practice of Psychiatry, 136–149
Blain, Daniel, 137
  cited, 81, 83, 145
Bleuler, Eugen, 47
Bowlby, John, cited, 64, 160
BOUDREAU, FRANK G., Mental Health, the New Public Health Frontier, 1–4 Brain damage
  epilepsy, description and treatment of, 41–42 generalized symptoms of, 35–37 brain condition connected with, 37 loss of specific functions caused by, 34
  postinfective, 159–160 reduced competence connected with, 39–40 treatment of patients, 34, 40–41, 42–44
Bronner, Augusta, 155
Broussais, François, 45
BUELL, BRADLEY, Planning Community-wide Attack on Behavior Disorders, 150–157
Buell, Bradley, cited, 151, 172
Burt, C., cited, 33
Butler, John S., 107

Cameron, D. C., cited, 12
Cameron, Norman, 51
Children
  affective responses of infants, 68–69 emotional response of, to physical illness and handicap, 71–73 expression of negative feeling, 69–71 importance of early environment to, 66–70, 75, 160 inadequate services for mentally deficient, 153–154 interaction of biological and social forces, 67 mentality of, needs protection during development, 3 psychotherapy for, 140–141, 163–164
  schizophrenic, 50
  socialization of, 47–48, 65–66
  See also Psychiatric clinics—for children Church
  loss of influence of, 18
  mental health movement compared with, 19–20
CITIZENS MENTAL HEALTH MOVEMENT, THE, George S. Stevenson, 92–99
Citizenship, principles of, 92–93
Clark, Gurney, editor, 158
Clinical psychology origin and development of, 88–89
Clinics, see Psychiatric clinics
COLEMAN, JULES V., Workers in the Field of Mental Health, 81–91
Coleman, Jules V., cited, 2, 136, 137 Community organization and mental health programs, 116–118, 150–151, 171 integration and weaknesses of social agencies, 155–157 Community services for mental patients, see Mental health programs; Psychiatric clinics
Cooper, M., cited, 5, 6 Counseling
  for the mentally ill, 164
  See also Marriage and family counseling Crime, psychological factors in, 79–80

Cushing, J. G. N., cited, 137
Cushing, Mary McK., cited, 137

Dayton, N. A., cited, 10
Deutsch, Albert, cited, 107, 158
DISORDERS ASSOCIATED WITH DISTURBANCE OF BRAIN FUNCTION, Edwin A. Weinstein, E. C. Alvord, Jr., and David McK. Rioch, 34–44
Dix, Dorothea Lynde, 158
Doll, E. A., cited, 33
Drug addiction
  extent of, 57
  hospitals for addicts, 103
  research regarding, 103
Dunbar, Flanders, cited, 141

Education for physically and mentally handicapped, 165 in medical schools by private psychiatrists, 141 in mental health, 118–123
    by child psychiatric clinics, 128
  See also Parent education
Education and training of mental health workers
  clinical psychologists, 89
  grants for, by National Institute of Mental Health, 104–105, 133–134 in child psychiatric clinics, 127–128 psychiatric nurses, 85
  psychiatric social workers, 87
  psychiatrists, 83, 137, 140
  psychoanalysts, 83, 143
Electric shock therapy, see Shock therapy
Eliot, Martha, cited, 57 Emotional factors connected with physical illness and handicap, 34, 71–73 in childhood development, 66–71 in mental deficiency, 30–31, 160 in parent-child relationship, 66–69
  in social illnesses, 57
Emotionally immature persons, 75
Encephalitis as affecting mental health, 29, 43, 159
Environmental therapy, 48–49, 84–85, 108, 139, 164 Epilepsy clinics for, 123
  description and treatment of, 41–42
Esquirol, Jean, 45, 46, 158
Eugenic sterilization of the mentally ill and defective, 33, 161
EWALT, JACK R., Mental Health Problems Affecting Social Relations, 74–80 EXTENT OF THE PROBLEM OF MENTAL DISORDERS, R. H. Felix and Morton Kramer, 5–14

Family
  as affecting behavior and mental health, 152, 160–161, 171–172
  defined, 151
  disorganization, 154–155
Feeble-mindedness, see Mental deficiency
Felix, R. H., cited, 108
FELIX, R. H., and MORTON KRAMER, Extent of the Problem of Mental Disorders, 5–14
Fenichel, Otto, cited, 77
Fosdick, Raymond B., cited, 4
FRANK, LAWRENCE K., The Promotion of Mental Health, 167–174
Frank, Lawrence K., cited, 169, 170, 172, 173
Frankl, George, cited, 170
Freud, Sigmund, 37, 46, 138, 142, 143, 158, 160

Gambling as an illness, 79
GARDNER, GEORGE E., American Child Psychiatric Clinics, 126–135
Gardner, George E., cited, 126, 129
Geoghegan, J. J., cited, 163
GINSBURG, SOL WIENER, The Neuroses, 55–64
Ginzberg, Eli, 56; cited, 111
Glass, A. J. L., cited, 163
Glueck, Eleanor, 155 Glueck, Sheldon, 155
Goddard, Henry Herbert, 88
Goldstein, Kurt, 35, 37
Gregg, A., chairman, 89
GRUENBERG, ERNEST M., The Prevention of Mental Disease, 158–166
Guttmann, L., 34

Hahn, Paul, quoted, 113
Hall, Marshall, 45
Harrower, M., editor, 89
Hathaway, Katherine, cited, 72
Hauser, Kaspar, 31
Havighurst, R. G., cited, 172
Head, Henry, 36
Healy, William, 81, 88, 126, 155
Herma, J., editor, 64
Hollingshead, A. B., cited, 13
Holt, Edwin B., 122
Horney, Karen, cited, 64
HOSPITAL SERVICES FOR THE MENTALLY ILL, Walter E. Barton, 107–115 Hospitalization for mental illness increased use and value of, 164 Hospitals
  general, with psychiatric facilities, 12, 124 psychiatric services of, for children, 130
  See also Mental hospitals Human nature essentially social, 15–16
  potentialities of, 168–169
Hunt, W. A., cited, 8

Huxley, Aldous, cited, 61
Hypnosis used by psychiatrists, 139

Infants, see Children Interpersonal relationships essential to human life, 15–16 psychiatric emphasis on, 46, 73

Jackson, Hughlings, 35, 36, 39
Jahoda, Marie, cited, 56
JERVIS, GEORGE A., The Mental Deficiencies, 25–33
Jones, Maxwell, cited, 166
Juvenile delinquency, extent of, 57

Kallman, Franz, 49
Keller, Helen, 165
Keyserling, Hermann Alexander, 45
Kinder, E. F., cited, 33
Knight, Robert P.
  cited, 143; quoted, 62, 63
Kraepelin, Emil, 46, 47, 49, 52
KRAMER, MORTON, see Felix, R. H., jt. author Kramer, Morton, cited, 12, 108
Kubie, L. S.
  cited, 56, 82; quoted, 62–63
Kurth, G., editor, 64

Leadership and morale building as preventive of mental disorder, 162–163 social significance of leadership qualities, 80
Leavell, Hugh, editor, 158
LEMKAU, PAUL V., Local Mental Health Services, 116–125
Lemkau, Paul V., cited, 5, 6
Lewin, Bertram, 53
Lewis, Aubrey, cited, 166
Lewis, E. O., 27
Littman, B., cited, 90
LOCAL MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES, Paul V. Lemkau, 116–125
Long, Haniel, quoted, 1
Lowrey, Lawson G., editor, 133
LOWRY, JAMES V., Public Mental Health Agencies, State and National, 100–106 Lowry, James V., cited, 114, 133
Luton, F. H., cited, 6, 7

McLean, F. C., cited, 57
Malzberg, Benjamin, cited, 10, 13
Manic-depressive persons behavior and treatment of, 52–54 Marriage and family counseling to prevent mental illness, 161
Maslow, M., cited, 64
Menninger, Karl, cited, 64, 83
Menninger, William C., cited, 158, 162
MENTAL DEFICIENCIES, THE, George A. Jervis, 25–33

Mental deficiency classification of, 26–27
  defined, 25
  diagnosis of, 25
  education of defectives, 165 emotional factors or deprivation, 30–31, 160 genetic factors in, 27–28
  incidence of, 25–30
  infectious, traumatic, toxic, and endocrine factors in, 28–30 pregnancy and birth factors in, 28–30 prevention and control of, 32–33 treatment and care of defectives, 31–32
    inadequate, 153–154
Mental health
  as affected by mental health movement, 22–24 community-wide approach to, 150–157, 170–174 connected with all aspects of living, 167–168, 169 important to peaceful civilization, 4 in the democratic framework, 173–174
  limited knowledge regarding, 1–2, 16–17
  necessary to social health, 173–174 normality defined, 36, 55–56, 169 public interest in, 2, 158–159
  research regarding, 3–4
    by child psychiatric clinics, 128–129
  See also Children; Mental illness
Mental health agencies
  National Institute of Mental Health, 103–105
  official and voluntary, 124 Public Health Service, 103 state mental hospitals, 100–101
  Veterans Administration, 102
Mental health associations membership in, 97–98
  nature of, 93–94
  structural relationships of, 96–97 work of, 98–99, 124–125
Mental health movement
  as affected by social values, 17–20
  as affecting mental health, 22–24 as affecting social values, 20–22 citizen action in, 94–96 compared with church, 19–20
  origin of, 17–19
MENTAL HEALTH PROBLEMS AFFECTING SOCIAL RELATIONS, Jack R. Ewalt, 74–80 Mental health programs community programs, 101–102
    aims of, 125
    clinical programs, 123
    community setting for, 116–118, 150–151, 171 mental health education, 118–123 preventive, need for, 153

formulation of, 3–4 government funds for, 105 of Veterans Administration, 102 of World Health Organization, 2
MENTAL HEALTH, THE NEW PUBLIC HEALTH FRONTIER, Frank G. Boudreau, 1–4 Mental health workers
clinical psychologists, 88–90
in research, 3–4, 141 industrial supervisors, 90 mental health nurse consultants, 90 occupational therapists, 90 physiotherapists, 90
psychiatric nurses, 84–86
psychiatric social workers, 86–88
recreational therapists, 90
teamwork of, 2, 81, 107, 127, 136–137
See also Education and training of mental health workers; Psychiatrists; Psychoanalysts Mental hospitals forces for improvement of, 114 hospital environment
as affecting patients, 48–49, 85, 108
as created by nurses, 84–85 hospitals for drug addicts, 103 insufficient personnel in, 112–113 isolation of, 112
length of stay in, 11–12, 109 modern requirements for, 113–115 number and bed capacity of, 107
operating costs of, 13, 111–112
organization and budgets of, 109–111 overcrowding in, 112 patient loads, 9–12, 107–108 payments for care of patients, 111
public relations of, 114
quality of care in, 112 records of, do not include all disordered persons, 1, 12 special facilities required for special needs, 113
state hospitals administration of, 100–101
date and place of first one, 100 treatment forms of, 108–109
results of, 109
unequal distribution of, 9
Veterans Administration hospitals, 102 Mental illness advances in treatment of, 107
age differentials in, 10–11
costs of, 1, 13, 63, 102, 147–148
defined, 136
environmental factors in, 58–59, 169
limited knowledge regarding, 5 origin of, unknown, 45–46 prevalence of, 56–57 hospital data regarding, 9–12 Selective Service data regarding, 8–9, 56, 158 surveys of, 5–8
public attitude toward, 122
research regarding, 5–8, 12–13, 14
conducted by psychiatrists, 141 grants for, 103–104
some causative diseases, 28–30, 42–44, 159–160
types of, 6, 7, 10, 11, 159
See also Brain damage; Mental deficiency; Mental health; Prevention Meyer, Adolf, 158
Mielke, Fred, cited, 161
Mitscherlich, Alexander, cited, 161
Mittleman, B., cited, 64
Moreno, Jacob L., 63
Morris, H. H., cited, 109
Mudd, Emily H., cited, 161
Muncie, Wendell
cited, 82, 137, 146, 148
Myerson, Abraham, cited, 161

Nadel, Aaron, cited, 109
NEUROSES, THE, Sol Wiener Ginsburg, 55–64 Neurosis
causative factors in, 58–59 compensation neurosis, 164–165 definition of, 58 difficult, 55
importance of, 55, 57–58, 64
incidence of, 56–57
manifestations of, 59–62
potentially present in everyone, 56
treatment of, 62
Normal mentality and personality
defined, 36, 55–56, 169

Osborn, Leslie A., cited, 138

Paranoid reactions, 51–52
Parent education to prevent personality disorders, 160
Pasamanick, Benjamin, cited, 160
Pennell, M. Y., cited, 12
Penrose, L. S., cited, 33
Personality and social organization and disorganization, 16–17
Pinel, Philippe, 45, 158
PLANNING COMMUNITY-WIDE ATTACK ON BEHAVIOR DISORDERS, Bradley Buell, 150–157 Prevention and control of mental deficiency, 32–33 of consequences of advanced mental illness, 164–165 of disability through mental illness, 165–166 of disordered behavior should be set in family framework, 152

of mental illness primary prevention, 159–163 secondary prevention, 163–164 sustained interest in, 158–159
PREVENTION OF MENTAL DISEASE, THE, Ernest M. Gruenberg, 158–166
PRIVATE PRACTICE OF PSYCHIATRY, Daniel Blain, 136–149
PROMOTION OF MENTAL HEALTH, THE, Lawrence K. Frank, 167–174 Psychiatric care, see Psychotherapy Psychiatric clinics
for children
basic principles of, 73
connected with hospitals, 130
connected with schools and universities, 131–132 contribution of, as an institution, 126
first one, 81, 88, 126 functions of (treatment, training, education, research), 126–129 future of, 134–135
organization and support of, 133–134
types of, 129–132
number having state assistance, 102
specialized, 123, 132
Psychiatric theory, changed emphasis in, 45–47
Psychiatrists
areas of practice, 81–83, 136–137, 140 criteria of skill of, 137 education and training of, 83, 137, 140
in private practice association of, with other workers, 136–137 distribution and supply of, 84, 143–147 length of interviews, 147–148
public relations of, 148–149
specialties of, 140–143 treatment expectancy of, 148 treatment methods of, 137–140 present number and estimated need of, 83–84
short supply of, 2, 63
See also Psychoanalysts Psychiatry educational, 141 forensic, 141 industrial, 141
professions related to, 90–91, 137 Psychoanalysis aim of, 63, 142
as a preventive device, 162
cost of, 63
length of treatment, 63, 142 technique of, 142–143
Psychoanalysts
distribution of, 147 training of and requirements for, 83, 143
Psychopaths, 75–76
Psychosomatic disorders
in children, 70–71
link psychiatrists with other physicians, 136–137 Psychotherapy
aims of, 62–63, 138
as a preventive device, 162
cost of, 147–148
described, 138–139
for children, 140–141, 163–164
various methods of, 62–63, 82, 164 Public health workers and mental health, 2–3
mental health nurse consultants, 90
PUBLIC MENTAL HEALTH AGENCIES, STATE AND NATIONAL, James V. Lowry, 100–106

Redlich, F. C., cited, 13
Rehabilitation, physical and mental, 165–166
Religion, see Church
REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR 1952, 175–177
Richardson, Henry B., cited, 172
Ridenour, Nina, cited, 122, 173
RIOCH, DAVID MCK., see Weinstein, Edwin A., jt. author
Rogers, Carl R., 63
Roth, W. F., cited, 6, 7

Salmond, P. H., cited, 57
Santayana, George, quoted, 2
Sapir, Edward, 36 Schizophrenia
as affected by hospital environment, 48–49 as affected by social environment, 50 childhood factors in, 48 in adolescence and adult life, 51–52
in children, 50
question of genetic transmission of, 49
treatment of, 52
SCHIZOPHRENIC, MANIC, AND DEPRESSIVE BEHAVIORAL REACTIONS, THE, Edward J. Stainbrook, 45–54
School as a mental health agency, 172
SEELEY, JOHN R., Social Values, the Mental Health Movement, and Mental Health, 15–24
Selective Service data about mental illness, 8–9, 56, 158
Sexual deviants, 76–77
Shock therapy abuse of, 140
area of use, 53, 108
for remittent patients, 163
importance of, 107, 164
Shrubsall, F. C., cited, 33
Sloane, Victoria, editor, 133
Social change since Middle Ages, 17–18

Social illnesses, 76–80
  emotional cause of, 57
Social nature of man, 15–16, 173
  See also Children—socialization of; Interpersonal relations Social security as preventive of mental illness, 161–162
SOCIAL VALUES, THE MENTAL HEALTH MOVEMENT, AND MENTAL HEALTH, John R. Seeley, 15–24
Social workers, psychiatric, 86–88
SPECIAL PROBLEMS OF INFANCY AND CHILDHOOD, Frederick H. Allen, 65–73
Spitz, René A., cited, 68
Spock, Benjamin, 122
STAINBROOK, EDWARD J., The Schizophrenic, Manic, and Depressive Behavioral Reactions, 45–54
Sterling, Nora, cited, 122
Stevenson, George H., cited, 163
STEVENSON, GEORGE S., The Citizens Mental Health Movement, 92–99
Strecker, E. A., cited, 57 Suicide
  extent of, 57
  prevention of, 164
Sullivan, Harry, 48

Tietze, C., cited, 5, 6
Tompkins, Harvey J., cited, 109
Tredgold, A. F., cited, 33
Tuke, William and Samuel, 158

Vaughan, Warren G., Jr., cited, 13
Veterans Administration
  services for the mentally ill, 102

Wallin, J. E. W., cited, 33
Ware, E. L., cited, 90
Wechsler, I. S., cited, 61
WEINSTEIN, EDWIN A., E. C. ALVORD, JR., and DAVID MCK. RIOCH, Disorders Associated with Disturbance of Brain Function, 34–44
Williams, A. C., cited, 33
Witmer, Lightner, 88
Wittson, C. L., cited, 8
Wolcott, Alexander, 80
Wolf, Katherine M., cited, 68
WORKERS IN THE FIELD OF MENTAL HEALTH, Jules V. Coleman, 81–91 World Health Organization efforts of, toward mental health, 2

Zilboorg, Gregory, cited, 64

INDEX

INDEX

Accident claims, see Injury claims
ACCIDENT LITIGATION: THE COMMON MAN SUES, Joseph Schneider, 69–74 ACCIDENT LITIGATION: THE INSURANCE CARRIER DEFENDS, Wallace E. Sedgwick, 75–82 Accident prevention means of reducing traffic accidents, 13–14 promoted by insurance carriers, 62 Administration of estates, see Settlement of estates Administrative agencies aided by courts in law enforcement, 8–9 biased in workmen's compensation cases, 65 efforts to improve process and practices of, 166 supplant courts in some respects, 5, 92 Administrative Office of the United States Courts achievement of, 164
  cost of, 130
  duties of, 130
  established in 1939, 147
  useful data gathered by, 177
Administrative organization, see Judicial administration Administrator of courts
  in New Jersey
    achievements of, 153, 161, 165, 177 tasks of, 149–153
  needed in every state, 165 Alcoholics courts lack facilities for handling, 10
Alexander, Paul W., 30
  cited, 31, 144; quoted, 29
AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION PROGRAM, THE, Harold J. Gallagher, 163–168
Andrews, J. B., cited, 59
Appellate opinion regarding Small Claims Court decisions, 23–24 Appellate procedure for review of Small Claims Court decisions, 22–23 simplified under Federal Rules of Civil Practice, 160 Arbitration of labor disputes an outgrowth of trade union strength, 34–35 cheap, expeditious, and educational, 40–41 hazards of, 37, 38–39, 41–42 interprets contract provisions, 36–38 protects job rights, 36, 38–40
  union controls worker's access to, 35–36
Atkinson, Thomas E., cited, 45, 47
Attorneys, see Lawyers
AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS AND FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY, Franklin J. Marryott, 83–91 Automobile insurance compulsory in Massachusetts, 84, 85, 88–89 economic problem of, 75
  importance of, 83–84
Automobiles number of, privately owned, 83 percentage of, insured, 84–85
AVAILABILITY OF LOW COST LEGAL SERVICES, Emery A. Brownell, 120–126

Baker, Ralph J., cited, 116
Ballantine, Arthur A., 91
BASYE, PAUL E., The Problem of Administering Small Estates, 43–52
Basye, Paul E., cited, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51
Bear, J., cited, 57
Bench verdicts versus jury verdicts, 94, 100–101, 175
Bentham, Jeremy, 154; quoted, 107
Beuscher, J. H., cited, 44, 45, 46
Blackstone, William, cited, 44
Blum, Walter J., 97
Boblinger, Alfred J., 88
BOK, CURTIS, The Jury System in America, 92–96
Botein, Bernard, plan of, for impartial physical examination of plaintiffs, 137–138
Brodley, Joseph, cited, 99
Broeder, Dale, 97
Brown, John C., Jr., 129
BROWNELL, EMERY A., Availability of Low Cost Legal Services, 120–126
Brownell, Emery A., cited, 33, 123, 164
Building maintenance and operation laws violations of, 8–9

Callagy, M. V., cited, 122
Casey, Walter, quoted, 25
Cayton, Nathan, cited, 21
Chandler, Henry P., 147; cited, 130
CHANGING POPULAR VIEWS ABOUT LAW AND LAWYERS, Willard Hurst, 1–7
Chesnut, William C., cited, 160
Clark, Charles E., cited, 145, 161
Clark, Eli, cited, 145
Clink, Stephen H., cited, 146
Clopton, Mort L., cited, 65
CONARD, ALFRED F., The Impact of Expense on Injury Claims, 110–119
Conard, Alfred F., cited, 53, 113, 132
Conciliation mandatory in Small Claims Court, 23

Cook, Phil H., cited, 81; quoted, 82
Cost of administration of estates, 46
Cost of litigation
  minimized in small claims court, 21–26
Cost of maintaining judicial system borne by taxpayers, 110, 127 cost of court systems, 127–129 cost per case, 131–132 items of expense, 129–131, 133 study of, needed, 133 Courts
  as furnishing entertainment, 5, 92–93 complexity in state-wide systems, 143–144 have lost popular esteem, 5, 6–7 identified with the law in popular mind, 1 inferior criminal courts classes of cases handled by, 8–12 difficulties of, 12
    importance of, 12
  integration of, needed, 144–146, 165 multiplicity of, 141–142
  number of cases disposed of in, 21, 134, 136, 138, 150 probate, jurisdiction of, 47
  specialized, 5
  structure of courts
    defects in, 141–144
    improvement of, through integration, 144–146, 165 in District of Columbia, 21
    in New York, 135
  See also Cost of maintaining judicial system; Family courts; Judicial administration; Jurisdiction; Small Claims Court; Traffic courts; Trial of cases Cuff, Thomas J., quoted, 175
Cummings, Homer, 164
CUTLER, A. S., Why the Good Citizen Avoids Testifying, 103–109

Dawson, Marshall, cited, 65
Delay in trial of cases, see Trial of cases
Dewey, Thomas E., 175; quoted, 89
Dike, George P., cited, 158
Dodd, E. Merrick, cited, 116
Dodd, Walter F., cited, 111, 112
Doherty, William, case of, 69–74
Domestic relations courts, see Family courts
Douglas, William O., cited, 110
Doyle, A. Conan, quoted, 2

ECONOMOS, JAMES P., The Traffic Problem, Traffic Laws, and Traffic Courts, 13–20
ESSENTIALS OF MODERN REFORM IN THE LITIGATIVE PROCESS, THE, Herbert Peterfreund, 154–162
Estate settlement, see Settlement of estates
EXPEDITING TRIAL OF CASES IN NEW YORK COUNTY, William C. Hecht, Jr., 134–140

Expense connected with injury claims as affecting claim payments, 113–115 elements of, 110–111 elimination or reduction of, 115–119 ratios of, 111–113
Expert testimony in accident cases, 80–81
  See also Physical examination of injured persons for legal purposes

Family courts
  adjunct services needed by, 29–30 Home Term Court of New York City, 9 nature and function of, 27–29
  role of judge and lawyer in, 32–33
FAMILY PROBLEMS AND THE COURT, Earl Lomon Koos, 27–33 Family relations inferior criminal courts not equipped to handle, 9–10, 31–32
  legal concepts inapplicable to, 28–30, 32
  social importance of, 27
Federal Rules of Civil Procedure accepted by bench and bar, 160 adopted wholly or partially by states, 160–161 provide for free joinder of claims and parties, 156–157 improved trial and appellate procedure, 160 liberal discovery, 157–158
    pretrial conferences, 136, 159 simplified pleading, 155–156 summary judgment, 159 represent judicial instead of legislative rule-making, 154–155
Field, David Dudley, 154
Financial responsibility of automobile operators financial responsibility system attitudes of insurance carriers toward, 91
    New York law, 85–86
    suggested improvements of, 88–91
    types of laws, 84–87 unsatisfied judgment fund (N. J.), 89–90 weaknesses of, 87–88 importance of, to accident victims, 83 Fisher, A., cited, 121
Forer, L. G., cited, 53
Fox, Harry S., cited, 51
Frank, Jerome N., 175; cited, 99
Fulbecke, William, quoted, 162
Fuller, Lon L., 143

GALLAGHER, HAROLD J., The American Bar Association Program, 163–168
Gallagher, Harold J., cited, 167
Goodrich, Herbert F., quoted, 177
GREENBAUM, EDWARD S., Need for Continuous Study of Law in Action, 174–179
Greenbaum, Edward S., cited, 178

Hazard, John N., cited, 117, 120
HECHT, WILLIAM C., JR., Expediting Trial of Cases in New York County, 134–140
Hecht, William C., Jr., cited, 119, 174, 178
HEMRY, LESLIE P., Workmen's Compensation and the Insurance Carrier, 62–68
Hepburn, Charles M., cited, 154
Hoffman, Harold M., cited, 99
Hohfeld, Wesley Newcomb, cited, 110
Holmes, Oliver Wendell, 176
Hornstein, George D., cited, 116
HOROVITZ, SAMUEL B., Workmen's Compensation and the Claimant, 53–61
Horovitz, Samuel B., cited, 58, 59, 117
Hunter, Robert M., cited, 99
HURST, WILLARD, Changing Popular Views About Law and Lawyers, 1–7

IMPACT OF EXPENSE ON INJURY CLAIMS, THE, Alfred F. Conard, 110–119
IMPROVING THE STRUCTURE OF COURTS, Maxine Boord Virtue, 141–146 Income, personal (U. S.)
  total and average, 43
INFERIOR CRIMINAL COURTS IN ACTION, THE, Morris Ploscowe, 8–12 Injured persons lawyers' relations with, 69–70, 73, 74 mental outlook of, 69–70 physical examinations of, for legal purposes, 73, 78, 137–138, 178
  See also Workmen's compensation Injury claims defense procedure, 77–82
  expense connected with, 110–119
  handled faster in England than in U. S., 176 investigation of, 76
  negotiating a settlement, 71–74, 76–77 preferable to settle before trial, 74, 114 preparation of, 70–71
  problem of unmeritorious claims, 75, 78, 80, 82 theory of, 75–76, 110–111
  unsatisfied judgment funds for payment of, 89–90
Installment buying, abuse of, 24–25
Insurance
  necessary to our economic structure, 75
  See also Automobile insurance; Liability insurance; Life insurance; Workmen compensation insurance

JAFFE, LOUIS L., Labor Arbitration and the Individual Worker, 34–42
James, F., Jr., cited, 178
Jayne, Ira W., 145, 178
  cited, 144; quoted, 146
Johnstone, Q., cited, 123

Judges
  as conciliators in Small Claims Court, 23 attitudes of, toward lay help in judicial administration, 173
  can experiment with improved court procedure, 178 efforts to improve selection of, 167 emergency assignment of, 138, 139 establish the tone of the courtroom, 19, 96, 107
  in New Jersey
    report weekly on status of business, 150–151 subject to Supreme Court, 148–149 maximum utilization of, 135–136, 148, 151, 152, 165
  of inferior criminal courts adjunct facilities needed by, 10, 12 basic function of, 11
    nice distinctions required of, 9–11 pressures upon, 8
  of probate courts, quality of, 47, 142–143 role of, in family courts, 32–33 role of, in traffic courts, 19 should protect witnesses from unfair lawyers, 107–108 verdicts of, see Bench verdicts versus jury verdicts Judicial administration general neglect of, 3–4, 147 judges can experiment with, 178 lawyers cannot experiment with, 178 need for study regarding, 176–179 public dissatisfaction with, 163 reform of American Bar Association program for, 165–167 exemplified in District of Columbia, 21–26, 169–172 exemplified in New Jersey, 148–153, 161, 165, 177 exemplified in New York County, 134–140 important, 6–7
    lay assistance in, 168–173, 179
  See also Cost of maintaining judicial system; Courts; Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; Lay help in judicial administration; Trial of cases Judicial power, popular view of, 1 Juries and jurors assumptions about jury behavior, 99 complex questions facing, 93–94 dramatic presentation of evidence to, 80
  functions of, 98–99
  instructions to, 81–82, 171
  irritated by many objections, 105 promoted repeal of prohibition, 95 selection of
    for accident claims cases, 78–79 suggested improvement of, 165–166

unfriendly toward insurance companies, 75 versus judges as verdict-makers, 94, 100–101, 175 Jurisdiction
defects in, 143–144
monetary limits of, in lower courts, 25, 137
of probate courts, 47
overlapping, in family problems, 31–32, 143, 144 Jury system control and proper use of, 95–96 firmly embedded in our legal structure, 92 links judicial administration with the community, 165 of District of Columbia, improved through laymen's assistance, 170–171 proposed study of, 97–102 supported by insurance attorneys, 78
JURY SYSTEM IN AMERICA, THE, Curtis Bok, 92–96 Jury trial
connected with delay in handling of cases, 139, 175–176 effort to reduce cost of, 166 infrequent use of, 92 permitted but discouraged in Small Claims Court, 22 permitted in workmen's compensation cases in some states, 59 right to constitutionally established, 92, 95 makes possible experiments with other methods, 95 suggested abolition of, in negligence cases, 139
Justice, an illusion, 93–94

Kalven, Harry, Jr., 97
Kline, George H., cited, 88
Knight, Merrill A., cited, 46
KOOS, EARL LOMON, Family Problems and the Court, 27–33
Koos, Earl Lomon, cited, 120, 144
Kreml, F. M., cited, 83
Kurland, Philip B., 97

LABOR ARBITRATION AND THE INDIVIDUAL WORKER, Louis L. Jaffe, 34–42
Labor disputes, see Arbitration of labor disputes Law
as a science, 94–95
development of, 92
popular views of, 1–5
LAWS, BOLITHA J., Lay Assistance in Improving Judicial Administration, 169–173
Laws, Bolitha J., 168
Lawyer referral services, 123–125, 163–164
Lawyers
advance money in injury claims cases, 114
attitudes of, toward lay help in judicial administration, 173
cannot experiment with improved court procedures, 178 cannot study reform of judicial administration, 177 modern demands upon, 6 play a minor role in family courts, 33 poor public relations of, 5–6 public reluctance to consult, 120–121 relations of, with injured clients, 69–70, 73, 74 trial techniques of, 79–81, 104–107
LAY ASSISTANCE IN IMPROVING JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION, Bolitha J. Laws, 169–173 Lay help in judicial administration attitudes of judges and lawyers toward, 169, 172–173 District of Columbia program of, 169–170 notable achievements of, 170–172 nation-wide efforts to enlist, 172 need and opportunity for, 168–169, 179 Legal aid facilities available, 122–123 facilities envisioned, 125, 164
limited to those unable to pay, 6, 120, 121, 164
to individual litigants in Small Claims Court, 21–22 Legal services availability of low-cost, 122–126, 163–164 in Soviet Union, 120
need for, 6, 120–122, 163
Lepawsky, Albert, cited, 141
Levi, Edward H., cited, 97 Liability insurance
cost of, 111, 113
justifications for, 114
See also Automobile insurance Liability insurance companies
as they view expense of litigation, 114 courts and juries unfriendly to, 75 defense of injury claims by, 76–82 Life insurance amount and coverage of, 43–44
Longsdorf, George F., cited, 154
Looker, Charles, cited, 45
Lumbard, J. E., Jr., cited, 122

Maitland, Frederic William, 176
MARRYOTT, FRANKLIN J., Automobile Accidents and Financial Responsibility, 83–91
Marshall, Leon C., cited, 177
Medical care for injured workmen limitations on payments for, 56, 63 provided by insurance companies, 63
Medina, Harold R., 131, 175

Mehr, R. I., cited, 53, 113, 132
MELTZER, BERNARD D., A Projected Study of the Jury as a Working Institution, 97–102
Millar, Robert W., cited, 154
Moore, James W., cited, 156
Munkman, John, cited, 61
Murphy, Frank, cited, 58
MYERS, FRANK H., The Small Claims Court in the District of Columbia, 21–26
Myers, Frank H., quoted, 25

NEED FOR CONTINUOUS STUDY OF LAW IN ACTION, Edward S. Greenbaum, 174–179 Niles, Russell D., cited, 52
Nims, Harry D., cited, 159

Oliphant, Herman, quoted, 178–179

Palmer, Ben W., cited, 115
Parker, John J., cited, 160
Patterson, Robert P., cited, 174
Pearson, Carl O., cited, 88 Peck, David W., 139, 178
  cited, 133
  quoted, 138, 174, 175
  plan of, for court reorganization, 135 plan of, for impartial physical examination of plaintiffs, 137–138
PETERFREUND, HERBERT, The Essentials of Modern Reform in the Litigative Process, 154–162 Physical examination of injured persons for legal purposes, 73, 78
  by physicians from impartial panel, 137–138, 178
PLOSCOWE, MORRIS, The Inferior Criminal Courts in Action, 8–12
Pope, James S., 172
Porter, C. O., cited, 124
Pound, Roscoe, 111, 145
  cited, 110, 164; quoted, 176
Powell, Richard R., cited, 45
Pretrial conferences and settlements, 74, 114, 136, 139, 159, 178
Procedural reform, see Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; Judicial administration PROBLEM OF ADMINISTERING SMALL ESTATES, THE, Paul E. Basye, 43–52
PROJECTED STUDY OF THE JURY AS A WORKING INSTITUTION, A, Bernard D. Meltzer, 97–102
Prosser, William L., cited, 110

Quinn, Thomas D., quoted, 25

Reade, Leslie I., cited, 178
Rheinstein, Max, cited, 52
Richter, B. N., cited, 53
Riesenfeld, S. A., cited, 57
Robson, William A., cited, 117
Roseberry, L. H., cited, 51
Rosenfield, H. N., cited, 179 Rule-making power court versus legislative, 154–155, 165
  vested in Supreme Court of the United States, 154, 164 Rules of evidence as affecting jurors, 95
  laymen unfamiliar with, 122 movement for revision of, 95, 108–109, 166 relaxed in Small Claims Court, 23 unfair to witnesses, 107
Rutledge, Wiley, quoted, 26

SCHNEIDER, JOSEPH, Accident Litigation: The Common Man Sues, 69–74
Scott, I. Grant, 153
SEDGWICK, WALLACE E., Accident Litigation: The Insurance Carrier Defends, 75–82 Settlement of estates
  by administration
    costs of, 46
    process of, 47–48
    simplification of, for small estates, 48–50, 51–52
  without administration, 43–46
    by informal family settlement, 50–51
Shientag, B. L., quoted, 178
Simes, Lewis M., 52
  cited, 46, 47, 48, 49
Small Claims Court
  an example of administrative reform, 21–26 appeals from, 22–23
  assists litigants in preparing claims and defenses, 21–22 conciliation in, mandatory, 23 criticism of, refuted, 26 jurisdiction of, limited to $50, 25
  number of cases disposed of in, 21
  permits but discourages jury trial, 22 provides registered mail service, 22 provides simplified and economical procedure, 21 renders decisions according to substantive law, 23–25 success of, 26
SMALL CLAIMS COURT IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, THE, Frank H. Myers, 21–26
Smith, Reginald Heber, 163
Social security benefits for surviving beneficiaries, 44
Speck, William H., cited, 158
Sproul, Robert Gordon, 172
Staver, LeRoy B., cited, 51
Stephens, Harold M., cited, 128
Stephenson, Gilbert T., cited, 51
Stockman, A. H., cited, 178
Sunderland, Edson R.
  cited, 154; quoted, 142
Sutherland, George, quoted, 122

Taft, Henry W., 104–105
Taft, William Howard, quoted, 161, 179
Taine, Charles R., cited, 158
Talbott, Forrest, cited, 141, 142
TAXPAYERS' STAKE IN THE COURTS, THE, Leland L. Tolman, 127–133
TOLMAN, LELAND L., The Taxpayers' Stake in the Courts, 127–133
Tolman, Leland L., cited, 110
Traffic accidents crowd the courts with cases, 134
  factors in, 13, 17–18
  number and seriousness of, 13, 83, 135
  reduction of, 13–14, 83
Traffic courts
  as they impress the public, 15, 16–17
  defined, 17
  exemplary in District of Columbia, 171 should use corrective influence on violators, 14
  suggested improvements of, 17–20
Traffic laws should be uniform and impartially enforced, 15–16
Traffic offenses and offenders analysis of offenders, 14–15 model ticket for, 17–18 number and proportion of, 8, 13, 14 offenders sent to safe-driving school in District of Columbia, 171 TRAFFIC PROBLEM, TRAFFIC LAWS, AND TRAFFIC COURTS, THE, James P. Economos, 13–20 Trial of cases delay in, 174–175
    as affecting fairness of settlement, 72, 175
    factors in, 134–135
    for personal reasons, 152 jury connected with, 139, 175–176 suggested cures for, 175 expedition of a public responsibility of the courts, 152
    in New Jersey, means of, 151–152
    in New York County, means and suggested means of, 135–140 handled faster in England than in U. S., 176 lawyers' techniques in, 79–81, 104–107
  See also Jury trial
Truman, Harry S., 174
Tweed, Harrison, quoted, 126
Tweyffort, Frank H., cited, 52

Vanderbilt, Arthur T., 161, 177
  cited, 142, 155; quoted, 16–17
VIRTUE, MAXINE BOORD, Improving the Structure of Courts, 141–146 Virtue, Maxine Boord, cited, 141, 146
Voorhees, T., cited, 124

Ward, Edward H., cited, 44, 45, 46
Warren, Earl, 172
WHY THE GOOD CITIZEN AVOIDS TESTIFYING, A. S. Cutler, 103–109
Wilson, Woodrow, quoted, 179
Winslow, John B., cited, 160
Witnesses in lawsuits cross-examination of, 80, 106–107
  expert testimony in accident cases, 80–81
  mistreatment of, 104–109
  reluctance of citizens to be, 103
WOELPER, WILLARD G., Work of the Modern Administrator of Courts, 147–153
Woelper, Willard G., cited, 165
Woerner, J. G., 49
Woods, E. M., cited, 121
WORK OF THE MODERN ADMINISTRATOR OF COURTS, Willard G. Woelper, 147–153 Workmen's compensation costs and rates of, 58–59 expense of, 112–113, 117–118 fairness of adjudications, 59
  for loss of hearing, 67–68 inadequate for serious injuries, 55–57, 59–60 limitations on benefits, 55–57
  nonmeritorious claims for, 64–65 origin and background of, 53–54 unsatisfactory, 53–61
WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION AND THE CLAIMANT, Samuel B. Horovitz, 53–61
WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION AND THE INSURANCE CARRIER, Leslie P. Hemry, 62–68 Workmen's compensation insurance private insurance versus state fund, 58–59, 60–61, 66–67 Workmen's compensation insurance companies imposed on by nonmeritorious claims, 64–65
  operating costs of, 58
  pay benefits promptly, 64 promote accident prevention, 62 provide medical care for the injured, 63 rate structure of, 66–68
Wyzanski, Charles E., Jr., quoted, 175

Yntema, H. E., cited, 178

Zeisel, Hans, 97

INDEX

Acheson, Dean G., quoted, 128, 131
Adams, John Quincy, 40
Appeasement of fascism, 38
Arab League united only against Israel, 54
Arab Near East
  affects whole Islamic world, 58
  Arab solidarity, 57–58
  bitter against the West, 59 reasons for, 59–62
  defined, 56
  geography and government of, 57 interests of, linked with West, 62 resents western policy toward Palestine, 60–62
  strategic importance of, 24, 56–57
  See also Middle East Atlantic Union
  defined, 2
  federal convention for, proposed, 2–3 expected effects of, on Communist system, 8–12 recommended, 138
  United States must lead in, 8
  See also Unity in free world
ATLANTIC UNION—FREEDOM'S ANSWER TO MALENKOV, Clarence K. Streit, 2–12
Austin, Warren R., 132

Balkan Treaty
  as affecting Greek and Turkish membership in NATO, 110 based on friendly relations of Balkan countries, 108–109 effects of, 111–112
  Greek and Turkish membership in NATO unaffected by, 110
  provisions of, 109–110
Barr, Stringfellow, cited, 43
Belair, Felix, Jr., cited, 43, 46
Bevin, Ernest, 39
Bidault, Georges, 64
Bismarck, Otto von, 115
BONESTEEL, CHARLES H., III, NATO and the Underdeveloped Areas, 67–73
Botha, Louis, 143, 144
Bradley, Omar N., 27; quoted, 127
Brady, Alexander, cited, 145
Burckhardt, Jakob, 50
Byrnes, James F., 39

Captive countries, see Liberation of satellites of U.S.S.R.; Satellites of U.S.S.R.
Chamberlain, Neville, 38, 98
Charles the Great (Charlemagne), 63
Chiang Kai-shek, 39, 50, 84
Churchill, Winston, 56, 80, 82, 100
  cited, 36
CIVIL-MILITARY RELATIONS IN MUTUAL SECURITY, Herman Miles Somers, 27–35 Clayton, William L., 3, 131
Clemenceau, Georges, 131
Clementis, V., 94
Collins, Lawton, quoted, 127
Coalitions, see International coalitions; North Atlantic Treaty Organization Collective security advantages of regional organization for, 124–125
  history of, 121–122
  requires pooling of resources, 123 Communism
  and the Arab countries, 58–59
  early effort to destroy, 36–37 effort to roll back, self-defeating, 40 not repugnant to underdeveloped areas, 25, 68
  See also Containment policy
Communist methods, 95–96
  See also Foreign policy (Soviet); Soviet Union Communist system
  as probably affected by proposed Atlantic federal convention, 8–12 characterized by distrust, 5 continuing change in, 43–44 weakened by Stalin's death, 4–6 Containment policy failure of, 38–40, 85
  fallacy of, 82–84
  nullified by Soviet objective, 79 opposite of Marshall plan, 83
CONTRIBUTION OF YUGOSLAVIA TO PEACE, THE, Leo Mates, 105–113
Cooke, Alistair, cited, 41

Daily, Starr (pseudonym), cited, 15
DECLARATION OF INTERDEPENDENCE, Otto Tod Mallery, 13–19 Defense expenditures in NATO countries, 84, 129
Democracy transmitted by colonial powers to dependencies, 22–23
Denikin, Anton I., 36
Dependent peoples, see Former dependencies Dewey, Thomas E., 64
Di Costa, John, cited, 23

Disunion, see Unity in free world
Douglas, William O., 52
Dulles, John Foster, 83
  cited, 40
  quoted, 132

Economic fear hampers NATO, 68–70
Eden, Anthony, 16, 71
Eisenhower, Dwight D., 6, 41, 42, 43, 56, 71, 83, 94, 129, 134, 135
  quoted, 7, 75, 127, 131
Elliott, William Y., cited, 34
Emspak, Julius, 95
Engels, Friedrich, 15 Europe
  bound by economic fear, 68–70
  comparative weakness of, 20, 114–115, 134 defense situation in, 84–85 eastern between the world wars, 49
    political status of, 48–49
  postwar Soviet threat to, 63–64
  priority of, as region for defense, 119–120, 123
Executive Military Authority explained, 124–125

FAILURE OF WESTERN POLICIES, THE, D. F. Fleming, 36–46
Faruk I of Egypt, 57
Feiling, Keith, cited, 38
Ferrero, Guglielmo, 96
FLEMING, D. F., The Failure of Western Policies, 36–46
Follett, Mary Parker, quoted, 44
Ford, Henry, 10
Foreign aid
  military emphasis in, 28–31
  our mistakes in, 24–25
  should be channeled through United Nations, 43, 53
  to Greece and Turkey, 128
  See also Marshall plan; Point Four Foreign policy (Soviet) basically unchanged, 132–133
  objectives of, 67, 79, 93–94, 132
  peace offensive
    a new psychological offensive, 75 objective of, 93–94
    probably due to NATO, 132 test of sincerity of, 94–95 threatens free-world unity, 4–8, 66, 73 probable, under Malenkov, 5–6 shift in, requires adaptation by NATO, 117–118
  See also Soviet Union
Foreign policy (U. S.)
  military emphasis in, 27
  negative and positive tendencies in, 45–46
Former dependencies have learned democracy from colonial powers, 22–23
Forrest, Nathan Bedford, 9
Forrestal, James V., 33; quoted, 61
FOX, WILLIAM T. R., NATO and Coalition Diplomacy, 114–118 France
  burdened by Indochinese war, 64–65 defense effort of, 64 importance of Saar to, 65 population increase in, 63 postwar industrial advance in, 63 tax burden in, 65
Free world affected by events in captive countries, 77 importance of NATO to, 67 tends toward disunion, 4–8, 73 unity within a necessity, 65–66, 72, 73, 133 threatened by Soviet conciliatory moves, 4–8, 66, 73
Freedom
  encroachment upon, in U. S., 44–45 misused to destroy freedom, 99

Galsworthy, John, 22
Germany
  position of, in East-West struggle, 8, 42, 90, 117
  rearmament of, 64, 91
  resurgence of, feared by France, 85 Gibb, Hamilton A. R., 62
  quoted, 61
Gibbs, Henry, cited, 143
Goethe, Johann W. von, 79
Gottwald, Klement, 94
Grew, Joseph C., 131
Gruenther, Alfred M., 129

HANANIA, FARID S., Tension in the Arab Near East, 56–62
Harriman, W. Averell, 130, 135
Havenga, Nicolas C., 146, 147, 148, 149, 151
Hertzog, James B. M., 144, 145
  quoted, 142, 143
Hickenlooper, Bourke B., quoted, 34
Hitler, Adolf, 11, 38, 47, 114, 115
Hoffman, Michael L., cited, 43
Hopkins, Harry L., 11
HOTZ, ALFRED J., NATO: Myth or Reality, 126–133
Humphrey, George M., 41, 45

Illiteracy in Middle East, 51 Income, personal in Arab Middle East, 51
  in Asia, 25
Indochinese war burden of, to France, 64–65

Infant mortality in India five times that in U. S., 25 International coalitions tend to disintegrate, 4 various, 13
See also North Atlantic Treaty Organization International co-operation agencies for, 13
basic issues in, 23–25
Declaration of Interdependence seek to further, 13–19 historic examples of, 22, 25–26 necessary to national security, 15–16 International order correlation of liberation with, 96–97 versus totalitarianism, 97
International relations of Yugoslavia postwar, with Soviet Union, 105
with Austria, 111
with Greece and Turkey, 108–111
with Italy concerning Trieste, 111 with the West, 111 International strategy focal points of, 20–22
scope of, 25 Intervention behind Iron Curtain proposed, 40
unwise, 40, 87–88
Islam
a democratic religion, 51
and Communism, 58–59 strongest tie of the Arabs, 57–58 Islamic countries
strategic importance of, 24
See also Arab Near East
Ismay (Sec. Gen. Lord), Hastings Lionel, 116, 130, 135
quoted, 129
Isolation contributed to decline of the West, 37–38
Israel
Arab opposition to, 54, 60–61
Jewish immigration into, 62
only Near East country with large Communist party, 59 refugee problem in, 62

JAMES, F. CYRIL, The Scope of Strategy, 20–26
John, Don, of Austria, 26
Jones, Brendan M., cited, 46
Jordan, George Racey, 95
Juin, Alphonse Pierre, 85

Kefauver, Estes, 3
Kennan, George F., 82
quoted, 40, 132
KERSTEN, CHARLES J., The Liberation Policy and International Order, 93–104
Kolchak, A. V., 36

Korean armistice hoped for by Yugoslavia, 113 reaction in U. S. and Canada to prospect of, 22 Korean war coalition in defense of, 129
defenses ready at outbreak of, 120, 122–123

LAGARDE, JEAN DE, The Meaning of NATO for France and Europe, 63–66 League of Nations emasculated by great powers, 37
weakness of, 121
LENGYEL, EMIL, Middle East Power Vacuum, 47–55
Lenin, Nikolay, 6, 43, 76
quoted, 93
Liberation of satellites of U.S.S.R. apathy toward, 100–102
as political warfare, 99–100 captive people eager for, 74–77
disturbs the Soviets, 99
does not mean war, 100–101 increased attention to, 101
now is the time for, 76–77
our moral obligation regarding, 102–104 policy for liberation an improvement over containment policy, 86–87 needed but lacking, 75, 76, 78 not supported on the Continent, 115 suggested elements of, 88–92 practical suggestions for, 103–104
through subversive activity opposed, 40, 87–88
proposed, 40
would weaken Soviet war potential, 100–101
See also Satellites of U.S.S.R.
LIBERATION POLICY AND INTERNATIONAL ORDER, THE, Charles J. Kersten, 93–104
Lincoln, Abraham, 98
Lippman, Walter, cited, 42
Louis XIV of France, 114, 115
Lovett, Robert A., 32, 33

MacArthur, Douglas, 123
MACDONALD, AUSTIN F., Politics in the Union of South Africa, 140–152
McGrath, J. Howard, 61
MACKAY, R. G., NATO and U.N., 119–125
Malan, Daniel F., 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151
Malenkov, G. M., 2, 4, 8–12, 76, 93, 94 present and probable policy of, 5–7
Malik, Yakov A., 93
MALLERY, OTTO TOD, Declaration of Interdependence, 13–19
Mallery, Otto Tod, cited, 23
Mao Tse-tung, 44, 84
Marshall, George C., 131, 133

Marshall plan changed aspect of, 28, 84 helped to check Communist advance, 81 opposite of containment policy, 83 saved European economy, 63, 84
Marx, Karl, 15, 43, 44
MATES, LEO, The Contribution of Yugoslavia to Peace, 105–113
Matles, James, 95
Matthews, Z. K., cited, 141
Mayer, René, 64, 65, 71
MEANING OF NATO FOR FRANCE AND EUROPE, THE, Jean de Lagarde, 63–66 Middle East
defined, 47
needs integration, 54
oversimplified views regarding, 50–51
Point Four as applied to, 53–54 poverty and oppression in, 51–52 question of defense organization in, 54–55, 56, 59, 62 revolution suggested for, 52–53
See also Arab Near East
MIDDLE EAST POWER VACUUM, Emil Lengyel, 47–55
Military emphasis in Mutual Security Program, 27–31, 84 danger in, 27, 29–31, 34–35, 40–41
factors in, 32–35
Military power as a deterrent, 90–91
Mohammed, 58
Molotov, V. M., 8
Monnet, Jean, 18, 130
Montgomery, Bernard L. (Field Marshal), 24, 136, 138, 139 views of, regarding NATO, 7, 23, 71
Moslems, see Arab Near East; Islam; Islamic countries
Mussolini, Benito, 121

NAGORSKI, ZYGMUNT, JR., NATO and the Captive Countries, 74–81
Nagorski, Zygmunt, Jr., cited, 20
Napoleon I, 24, 114, 115
National sovereignty preserved in NATO, 127, 131, 134, 136–137 versus collective security, 123
NATO AND THE CAPTIVE COUNTRIES, Zygmunt Nagorski, Jr., 74–81
NATO AND COALITION DIPLOMACY, William T. R. Fox, 114–118
NATO AND THE UNDERDEVELOPED AREAS, Charles H. Bonesteel, III, 67–73
NATO AND U.N., R. G. Mackay, 119, 125
NATO: MYTH OR REALITY, Alfred J. Hotz, 126–133
Near East, see Arab Near East Negroes, see Union of South Africa
North Atlantic Treaty Organization
achievement of, 117–118, 120, 131
has reduced Communist voting strength in western Europe, 78
as an instrument of policy, 78, 80
as core of a European Army, 80–81
as viewed by the West and by captive countries, 74–76 compared with other coalitions, 114–117, 134–135
described, 126–127
deterrent effect of, 116–117, 131 diplomatic tasks of, 117–118 economic and political aspects of, 130–131, 135–136
ensnared by political fear, 79
first U. S. alliance in peacetime, 63 Greek and Turkish membership in, unaffected by Balkan Treaty, 110 hampered by economic fear, 68–70 hinders Communist advance, 78, 79, 81 implementation of its obligations, 128–129 importance of, to free world, 67 inclusive nature of, 65 linked with fate of captive countries, 80 military effort of, not well supported, 135 military weakness and strength of, 77–78, 129 must adapt itself to underdeveloped countries, 71–72 must be outside United Nations, 122–123 national interest and sovereignty preserved in, 127, 131, 134, 136–137 needs of, 7, 23, 136
objectives of, 67–68, 126
clear statement of, needed, 23 question of inclusion of Middle East in, 54–55 reason for, 20, 63–64, 134 regions for action by, 72–73 relations of, with United Nations, 125 Soviet hostility toward, 132
structure of, 116, 130–131, 134–135
unity within, needed, 72
weakness of, 7, 77–78, 136–139

Off-Shore Procurement
description and effects of, 29–31
Ortega y Gasset, José, 48

Paton, Alan, cited, 152
Patterson, Mrs. Robert, 3
Pauker, Ana, 94
Peace, price of, 22
Pearson, Lester B., 136
Perkins, James A., quoted, 31, 34
Phillips, William, 131
Pichon, Stéphen, 36
Plowden, Edward, 130
Point Four
as applied to the Middle East, 53–54

Political warfare necessity for, 99–100 reluctance to engage in, 102
self-defeating, 40
POLITICS IN THE UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA, Austin F. Macdonald, 140–152 Population of France, increase in, 63
Power vacuum defined, 47–48
PRESIDENCY OF THE ACADEMY, THE, 1

Race conflict
in Union of South Africa, 140–152
"Realism" in international relations, 98
Rearmament
contributions of various nations to, 64
Refugee problem in Israel, 62
Regional organizations for security
advantages of, 124–125
See also North Atlantic Treaty Organization
Reston, James, 41
Rhee, Syngman, 84
Ridgway, Matthew B., 116
ROBERTS, OWEN J., What Should Follow from NATO? 134–139
Roberts, Owen J., 3
Roosevelt, Franklin D., 11

Saar, the, important to France, 65
Satellites of U.S.S.R. a potential asset to the West, 74, 78, 80
a potential threat to Communist power, 94–95 abandonment of, advocated by some, 79 attitude of, toward NATO, 74–76, 80 fate of, affects fate of free countries, 77, 79–80
Soviet war preparations in, 75–76, 132
See also Liberation of satellites of U.S.S.R.
Schuman, Frederick L., cited, 39
SCOPE OF STRATEGY, THE, F. Cyril James, 20–26
Sethe, Paul, cited, 37
Siegfried, André, 40
Slánský, Rudolf, 94
Smith, Adam, 10, 44
Smuts, Jan Christiaan, 143, 144, 145, 152
SOMERS, HERMAN MILES, Civil-Military Relations in Mutual Security, 27–35 South Africa, see Union of South Africa Soviet Union
armament of, 132
drive to the Mediterranean, 109
duplicity of, 93
objective of, 67, 79, 93–94, 132
obstructive methods of, in U.N., 121–123
unsettled by change in dictator, 3–6, 76
See also Foreign policy (Soviet); Yugoslavia
Stalin, Joseph, 2, 41, 43, 44, 84, 93, 117
quoted, 6, 11

Stalin's death creates danger to free world, 4–7 creates opportunity to free world, 3–6, 8–12, 90 was expected to disintegrate Communist system, 100 Stallard, C. F., 145, 146, 147
Stewart, George, cited, 36, 37
Strauss, Jacobus G. N., 150, 152
STREIT, CLARENCE K., Atlantic Union—Freedom's Answer to Malenkov, 2–12
Strydom, Johannes, 151
Suleiman the Magnificent, 25
Sulzberger, Arthur Hays, cited, 44
Sumner, William Graham, quoted, 39

Tax burden in France, 65
TENSION IN THE ARAB NEAR EAST, Farid S. Hanania, 56–62
Tito, Marshal (Jossip Broz), 11, 44, 102
Titoism
unlikely to be repeated, 101–102
See also Yugoslavia Totalitarianism
versus international order, 97 Toynbee, Arnold J., 70, 103
quoted, 133
Treaty powers, limitations on, 137
Truman, Harry S., 39, 82, 83, 84, 86, 134, 136
Truman Doctrine occasion and implementation of, 39
Turgot, Anne Robert Jacques, 10

Underdeveloped countries discount Communist threat, 25, 58–59, 68, 70–71 distrust the West, 70–71, 73
potentialities of, 70
Union of South Africa
apartheid in, 146–147
cleavage between Dutch and British descendants in, 143–144
coloreds and Asiatics in, 142–143, 147–150 education in, 140
politics in (1910–48), 144–147
politics in (1948–53), 147–152
resentment in, against Great Britain, 151 social and political status of natives in, 140–142 social security in, 141
South-West Africa admitted into, 149
United Nations
did not contemplate great-power aggression, 122, 126 disappointment with, 119
headquarters should be moved from U. S., 43 ineffective against Communist aggression, 121–123 relations of, with NATO, 125

Unity in free world endangered by Soviet relaxation, 4–8, 66, 73
need for, 65–66, 72, 73, 133
See also Atlantic Union

Vandenberg, Arthur H., 56
quoted, 127, 128
Veuillot, Louis, quoted, 99
Vyshinsky, A. Y., 93

WARBURG, JAMES P., Which Way to Liberation? 82–92
Warburg, James P., cited, 42
Washington, George, 9, 16
Western policies
defensive policy insufficient, 80
now is time for political offensive, 76–77 past, unsuccessful, 36–40 present, ill chosen, 40–41
present, recommended, 41–45
See also Containment policy; Liberation of satellites of U.S.S.R.—policy for liberation
WHAT SHOULD FOLLOW FROM NATO? Owen J. Roberts, 134–139
Wheeler-Bennett, J. W., cited, 38
WHICH WAY TO LIBERATION? James P. Warburg, 82–92
William II of Germany (Kaiser Wilhelm), 114, 115
Wilson, Woodrow, 60
World order
Soviet and western concepts contrasted, 126
World political situation, 84–85

Yalta agreement underlying meaning of, 38–39 Yugoslavia
break with Soviet Union
a decisive battle, 106–107
as affecting satellites, 106, 107 international effects of, 107 contribution of, to peace, 112 hopes for speedy Korean armistice, 113 internal and external consolidation in, 107–108 international relations of, 108–113 minimizes ideological differences, 112–113 postwar relations of, with Soviet Union, 105 Soviet attempt to subjugate, 105–106

Zilliacus, K., cited, 37

INDEX

Acheson, Dean G., 170
Adams, Ephraim Douglas, cited, 34
Adams, Henry, cited, 30
Adams, John, 25
Adams, John Quincy, 31, 73, 150
  quoted, 130, 151
Adenauer, Konrad, 63, 118
"Advice and consent of the Senate" necessary for appointment of ambassadors and other diplomats, 49, 53, 61, 131 necessary for treaty-making, 49, 66
  the two-thirds rule, 11 allows a minority control of foreign affairs, 26, 51, 128–129
    origin of, 50–51, 128
    Senate approves, 18–19
Alaska purchase, 35, 152
Allen, William, 59
Alsop, Joseph and Stewart, 95
Ambassadors and other diplomats appropriations for, proposed restrictions on, 151, 154, 157 constitutional provisions for appointment of, 49, 61, 131 senatorial view regarding appointment of, 53, 131 Appropriations affected by study missions, 82
  Army Appropriation (1912), proposed restriction on, 154 for diplomats, House proposed restrictions on, 151, 154, 157 for Mutual Security Programs, 70, 82 for support of foreign representatives, historic, 27, 151 increased in last twenty years, 67
  Navy Appropriation Acts, carried requests for peace moves, 155–156 since 1940, for international programs congressional control of, 158–163
    size of, 158
Appropriations process in Congress
  annual authorizations required for European Recovery Program, 84 appropriations bills must originate in the House, 49, 153
  as shaping foreign policy, 14–15, 66–67
  procedure, 69–71
Archer, William S., 59
Arends, Leslie C., 46
Articles of Confederation congressional authority under, 24 emphasized state rights, 50
Austin, Warren R., 43, 46, 102

Bacon, Augustus O., 59, 154
Bailey, Thomas A., cited, 148, 151
Baldwin, Abraham, 38 Ball, Joseph H., 46
Barbour, James, 58, 59
Barkley, Alben W., 46
Battle, Laurie C., 124, 125
Battle Act
  administration of, improved by study mission, 124–125 originated in Committee on Foreign Affairs, 68 Bemis, Samuel Flagg
  cited, 23, 24, 37, 151
  editor, 25, 33, 34
Benton, Thomas Hart, 59 compiler, 149, 150
Bidault, Georges, 63
Bipartisanship in foreign policy desirability of, questioned, 170 examples of, 169–170
  high aim of, 171
  meaning of, 78–79, 167–169
  predominates, 18–19 wartime and postwar accord, 56–57, 167 weakened, 56
Bland, Schuyler Otis, 44
Bloom, Sol. 43, 46, 73, 102
Borah, William E., 56, 59, 155
BRADSHAW, MARY E., Congress and Foreign Policy Since 1900, 40–48
BRICKER, JOHN W., Making Treaties and Other International Agreements, 134–144
Bricker, John W., 85
  cited, 137
Bricker amendment
  a treaty-control amendment, 134–144
  advantages of, 137, 144
  objections to, refuted, 143–144 purposes of, 134
  substance of, 136–137 British Parliament
  role of, in foreign relations, 19–20 system not applicable to U. S., 108–109 value of question hour in, 14, 110
BROWN, BEN H., JR., Congress and the Department of State, 100–107
Brown, Constantine, 95
Brown, James, 59
Bryan, William Jennings, 166
Buchanan, Frank, 98
Buchanan, James, 59
Bulwinkle, Alfred L., 44
BURDETTE, FRANKLIN L., Influence of Noncongressional Pressures on Foreign Policy, 92–99
Burke, Edmund, 170
Burleson, Omar, cited, 121
Burnett, Edmund Cody, cited, 24

Burnside, Ambrose, 59
Burton, Harold H., 46

Cahn, Julius H., 63
Calhoun, John C., 73
Cameron, Simon, 59
CARDOZO, MICHAEL H., Committees Touching Foreign Relations Indirectly, 84–91
CARNAHAN, A. S. J., Congressional Travel Abroad and Reports, 120–126
Carnahan, A. S. J., cited, 121
Cass, Lewis, 32, 33
Celler, Emanuel, quoted, 157
Cheever, Daniel S., cited, 145
Chiang Kai-shek, 12, 94
Childs, Marquis, 95
CHIPERFIELD, ROBERT B., The Committee on Foreign Affairs, 73–83
Chiperfield, Robert B., cited, 121
Churchill, Winston, 118
Civil War
  foreign relations during, 34–35
Clarke, Mathew St. Clair, editor, 25
Clay, Henry, 30, 31, 32, 59, 150, 166
Cleveland, Grover, 36, 37
Columbus, Christopher, 1, 4
Commercial international relations, see Tariff dilemma; Treaties—commercial COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS, THE, Robert B. Chiperfield, 73–83 Committee on Foreign Affairs (House of Representatives) asserts control over U. S. contributions to international organizations, 161–162 Battle Act originated in, 68 education of public by, 79–80
  establishment of, 27, 73
  foreign officials consulting with, 79
  functions of, 74–75
  increase in appropriations authorized by, 67 increased importance of, 41–42, 80–83 minority reports of, 78–79, 168–169 nonpartisanship in, 78–79, 168–169 procedure of, 77–78 prominent members of, 73–74
  public relations of, 79–80
  size and party structure of, 71, 73 sources of information for, 79 staffing of, 76–77
  subcommittees of, 71, 82
  work load of, 75–76
COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS, THE, Alexander Wiley, 58–65 Committee on Foreign Relations (Senate)
  establishment of, 27, 41
  importance of, 58, 65
  increased volume and complexity of work of, 41, 64–65
  membership and organization of, 58–60 membership on, desired by Senators, 54 procedures and functions of, 60–63 relationships of, 63–64 responsibilities of, 58
COMMITTEES TOUCHING FOREIGN RELATIONS INDIRECTLY, Michael H. Cardozo, 84–91 Communist China membership in U.N. opposed by U. S., 163 Communists
  duplicity of, 6
  philosophy, 5
  seek to spread discord among their enemies, 16 Congress (U. S.) an institution of leadership, 20–21
  constitutional powers of, 66
  current responsibility of, in foreign affairs, 3–4 needs representation to the people, 173 place of, in American democracy, 176–177 proposals to speed work of, 173–176 represents public opinion, 5, 9, 67, 69, 96, 172–173
  See also Foreign policy formulation (U. S.); House of Representatives; Senate CONGRESS AND FOREIGN POLICY SINCE 1900, Mary E. Bradshaw, 40–48
CONGRESS AND FOREIGN RELATIONS BEFORE 1900, Dorothy Burne Goebel, 22–39 Congress and recognition policy congressional authority denied, 35
  re Spanish American republics, 31, 150
  re Texas, 32–33, 151 Congress and territorial expansion in early U. S., 32–34, 35
  in late nineteenth century, 36–38
CONGRESS AND THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE, Ben H. Brown, Jr., 100–107
Congressional committees concerned with foreign policy, 12, 71, 84–91 function of, in policy-making process, 69
  See also Committee on Foreign Affairs; Committee on Foreign Relations; Department of State—committees on foreign policy Congressional-executive relations in foreign affairs compared with British system, 108–109, 110 conflict in, 108, 132–133, 154, 170 due to difference in constituencies represented, 140
    due to lack of prior consultation of Congress, 129–132 over appointment of diplomats, 53, 131 promoted by constitutional provisions, 11, 52, 66, 132, 140–141 constitutional provisions for, 11, 26, 49–52, 61, 66, 140–141 co-operation necessary, 8–9, 100–101, 176–177 desirable flexibility in, 66 division of powers necessary, 61, 106–107, 109

during and following Civil War, 34–36
during and following World War II, 42–47, 53, 102 executive co-operation needed to speed congressional work, 175–176 executive supremacy in, declared, 142–143
from first session to Civil War, 26–34, 145–152
furnish information to Congress, 116
just prior to World War II, 42 machinery for collaboration, 62–63, 71–72, 81–82, 109–110
proposed, 110–113
prior consultation of Congress
a hindrance to diplomacy, 52, 129
desirable, 133
difficulty of, 103–106
intended by framers of Constitution, 129 on commercial relations, 153–154
on Japanese peace treaty, 105 practiced by President Washington, 52, 100, 129 re U. S. adherence to Permanent Court of International Justice, 156 trend toward collaboration and consultation since 1942, 47–48 Congressional floor debate and speeches significance of, 14 Congressional investigations
as affecting foreign relations, 87 functions and nature of, 13–14, 116–117 Congressional resolutions
as shaping foreign policy, 12–13
Congressional travel abroad
a recent development, 120 affects legislation, 122–125 aids executive branch, 125
extent of, 17, 120
financing of, 121–122 promotes good will, 125 reports resulting from, 121 value of, 72, 90, 122–126
See also Congressmen—as delegates to international conferences
CONGRESSIONAL TRAVEL ABROAD AND REPORTS, A. S. J. Carnahan, 120–126 Congressmen
as delegates to international conferences, 71–72, 81–82, 102 experience and education of, 17–18 forms and categories of information for, 118–119 sources of information of, 72, 79, 89–90, 98–99, 116, 117–118 executive branch material, 114, 116 hearings and investigations, 116–117
inadequate, 111–113
Legislative Council, 115
Legislative Reference Service, 115 professional and clerical staff members, 114–115 question period proposed, 110–113 voters should select qualified men, 90 Connally, Tom, 43, 46, 56, 59, 74, 102
quoted, 96
Constitution (U. S.) amendment of
by evolutionary practices, 135
by treaties, 135–136
constitutional provision for, 135 established supremacy of, would aid treaty making, 137–138 flexibility of, 135, 137
Constitutional provisions give Executive and Congress conflicting powers, 11, 52 provide desirable flexibility in congressional-executive relations, 66 re congressional powers, 66 debated from time to time, 26, 29 regarding foreign policy, 49–52, 61
See also Congressional-executive relations in foreign affairs Continental Congress and foreign relations
history of, 22–25
Corwin, Edward S., 66
cited, 11, 135, 145, 148, 150, 151, 153, 154
quoted, 46, 153, 154, 155
Costello, John M., quoted, 94
Cox, James M., 166
Crandall, Samuel B., cited, 145, 148, 149, 152, 153
Crawford, Boyd, 73
Cullom, Shelby M., 59
Cushing, Caleb, 32, 33, 73

Dahl, Robert A.
cited, 41, 47, 48
quoted, 40, 41, 42
Dalton, Richard F., quoted, 94
Dangerfield, Royden J., cited, 145, 153
Danish West Indies, proposed purchase of, 35
Davis, Cushman K., 59
Deane, Silas, 23
Democracy, high ideals of, 5
Department of State committees on foreign policy congressional representation on, 43–45
during World War II, 42–45
organizational setup of, 103–104 relations of, with Congress, see Congressional-executive relations in foreign affairs
Dewey, George, 38
Dulles, John Foster, 105, 138, 170
quoted, 135, 136, 139, 142

Eaton, Charles A., 43, 46, 73, 102
Eaton, William W., 59

Ebersole, Luke Eugene, cited, 93
Eden, Anthony, 118
Edmonds, George F., 59, 118
Edson, Peter, 95
Eisenhower, Dwight D., 2, 109, 142, 171
Elliott, William Y., cited, 145
European Recovery Program appropriations for, required annual authorizations, 84 extension of, occasioned statement of bipartisan foreign policy, 168–169 Executive agreements as substitute for treaties, 132, 142
    Senate disapproves, 18 difference between treaties and, 132 increasing use of, 13
  See also International agreements
EXECUTIVE-CONGRESSIONAL LIAISON, Estes Kefauver, 108–113
Executive-congressional relations, see Congressional-executive relations in foreign affairs
Executive Departments concerned with foreign policy, 87 Executive powers in foreign relations (U. S.)
  constitutional provisions for, 11
  expansion of, 11
  Great Debate of 1951 on, 11–12, 87
  omnipotence of, considered, 135, 141

Farrand, Max, cited, 25, 26, 38
Ferguson, Homer, 63
FINANCIAL ASPECTS OF CONGRESSIONAL PARTICIPATION IN FOREIGN RELATIONS, Eli E. Nobleman, 145–164
Finch, George A., cited, 140
Fish, Hamilton, 36
Fleeson, Doris, 95
Fleming, D. F., cited, 156
Flood, Daniel J., cited, 121
Foote, Henry S., 59
Ford, Paul Leicester, cited, 26
Ford, Worthington Chauncey, editor, 23
Foreign Affairs Committee, see Committee on Foreign Affairs Foreign officials consulting with Committee on Foreign Affairs, 79 consulting with Committee on Foreign Relations, 63–64 Foreign policy affected by technological advances, 82–83 changed nature of, 15–16
  Congress-wide concern with, 54, 84–85, 89, 90 fiscal control of, by Congress instances of, 146–152 means of, 145–146
  noncongressional pressures on, 92–99
  party responsibility for foreign policy factors modifying, 165–166, 170–171 factors obscuring, 166–167 related subjects involved in, 54–55, 84–86
  unprecedented popular interest in, 16–17, 54, 67, 127
  See also Bipartisanship in foreign policy; Congress; House of Representatives; Senate Foreign policy formulation in European countries, 19–20 Foreign policy formulation (U. S.)
  compared with that in European nations, 19–20 Congress opposed to Communist China membership in United Nations, 163 congressional attempt to sever diplomatic relations with U.S.S.R., 157
  congressional control of
    through appropriations, 66–67, 80, 145–164 through control of commerce, 28–29, 30 through refusing consent to treaties, 51, 130 congressional initiative or partnership in, 8–9, 11, 56–57, 68, 80–83, 130, 132, 155–156
    during and following Civil War, 34–36
    during World War II, 43–45
    from first session to Civil War, 26–34
    prior to Dumbarton Oaks and San Francisco conferences, 45–46, 102 examples of senatorial participation in, 56–57 executive branch initiative in, 11, 68, 130–131 historic background of, 49–51, 127–129 procedure in, 68–69
  See also Bipartisanship in foreign policy
Foreign relations: question where control of is constitutionally vested, 25–26, 145, 163
Foreign Relations Committee, see Committee on Foreign Relations Forsyth, John, 59
Foster, John W., cited, 150
Franklin, Benjamin, 25
Fraser, Henry S., cited, 141
Freedom
  essence of democracy, 5
  power required to maintain, 6–8 Friedrich, Carl J., cited, 42
Fuess, Claude M., cited, 33
Fulbright, J. William, 63, 74, 167
FUTURE OF CONGRESS IN FOREIGN RELATIONS, THE, Thorsten V. Kalijarvi, 172–177

Gallatin, Albert, 148
Galloway, George B., cited, 145
Genêt, Edmond Charles Édouard, 28
George, Walter F., 43, 44, 46, 59, 62, 63, 94, 102

GILLETTE, GUY M., The Senate in Foreign Relations, 49–57
Gillette, Guy M., 46, 62, 63
  cited, 61
Gladstone, William E., 1
GOEBEL, DOROTHY BURNE, Congress and Foreign Relations Before 1900, 22–39
Goebel, Dorothy Burne, cited, 34
Goebel, Julius, Jr., cited, 31, 34
Gordon, Thomas S., cited, 121
Grant, Ulysses S., 36, 154
Green, Theodore Francis, 63
GRIFFITH, ERNEST S., The Place of Congress in Foreign Relations, 11–21
Griffith, Ernest S.
  cited, 47, 145
  quoted, 20–21
Gross, Bertram M., cited, 98

Hamilton, Alexander, 25, 26, 148, 149
  cited, 28, 153
  quoted, 141
Hamlin, Hannibal, 59
Hannegan, Edward A., 59
Harding, Warren G., 155, 166
Harlow, Ralph Volney, cited, 28
Hatch, Carl A., 46
Haviland, H. Field, cited, 145
Hay, John Milton, quoted, 129
Hays, Brooks, cited, 121
Hennings, Thomas C., Jr., 74
Herter, Christian A., 74, 122
Hickenlooper, Bourke B., 63
Hill, Lister, 46
Hitchcock, Gilbert, 59
Hoffman, Paul, 57
Holt, W. Stull, cited, 52
Holtzoff, Alexander, 97
Hoover, Herbert, 88
House of Representatives constitutional powers of, re treaties, 29 enhanced role of, in foreign affairs, 16, 47, 49, 67 rules of, 77–78
  See also Committee on Foreign Affairs; Congress
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS, THE, James P. Richards, 66–72
Hull, Cordell, 45, 46, 102, 157, 167
Humphrey, Hubert H., 62, 63
Hunt, Gaillard, editor, 28

Indian affairs (U. S.) placed under congressional authority, 36
INFLUENCE OF NONCONGRESSIONAL PRESSURES ON FOREIGN POLICY, Franklin L. Burdette, 92–99
INFORMATION AND INTELLIGENCE FOR CONGRESS, H. Alexander Smith, 114–119 International agreements increasing number and significance of, 134
  other than treaties distinction between treaties and, 141–142 implied in Constitution, 141
  See also Executive agreements; Treaties; Treaty making; Treaty-making power International conferences delegation to Panama Congress, 150–151
  House requests for peace conferences, 155–156
  International Opium Conference, Geneva (1924), 156 question of Presidential participation in, 154–155
  See also Congressional Travel Abroad; Congressmen International organizations, see United States contributions to international organizations Isolationism initiated by Congress in 1798, 29

Jackson, Andrew, 32, 33, 41
Jackson, Donald L., cited, 121
Jackson, Robert H., 97
Javits, Jacob K., cited, 121
Jay, John, 24, 25, 29, 148
Jefferson, Thomas, 29, 30
  quoted, 137, 146, 147
Jensen, Marcus, cited, 22
Johnson, Andrew, 152
Johnson, Hiram, 56
Johnson, Luther A., 43, 102
Judd, Walter H., 125

KALIJARVI, THORSTEN V., The Future of Congress in Foreign Relations, 172–177
Kalijarvi, Thorsten V., 62, 63
Kaplan, Sheldon Z., cited, 159
Kee, John, 73
KEFAUVER, ESTES, Executive-Congressional Liaison, 108–113
Kelly, Edna F., cited, 121
Kennan, George F., quoted, 40
King, Rufus, 59
King, William R., 59
Kluttz, Jerry, 95
Knowland, William F., 63
Krock, Arthur, 95

La Follette, Robert M., Jr., 46, 56
Langer, William, 62, 63
Lans, Asher, cited, 136
Lauterpacht, H., cited, 136
Lawrence, David, 95
Lay, T. H.
  cited, 145, 153, 155, 156
  quoted, 154–155
LeCompte, Karl M., cited, 121
Lenin, Nikolay, quoted, 7

Leonard, L. Larry, cited, 45
Lincoln, Abraham, 2, 3
  quoted, 3
Lincoln, Gould, 95
Linn, Archibald L., quoted, 151
Linthicum, John Charles, 156
Lippmann, Walter, 95
Lobbying, see Pressure groups influencing foreign policy Lodge, Henry Cabot, 56, 59
  editor, 28
Lodge, John Davis, 74
Louisiana Purchase, 30
Lowell, A. Lawrence, quoted, 165
Lowrie, Walter, editor, 25
Lucas, Scott W., 44
Luce, Robert
  cited, 145
  quoted, 153, 170

MacArthur, Douglas, 13, 19, 54, 96
MacArthur hearings
  educative nature of, 13, 19
  public pressure on Congress regarding, 96 required much senatorial time, 54
McCarran, Patrick A., 102
McClure, Wallace, quoted, 142
McCormack, John W., 46
  quoted, 157
McCormick, Robert R., 95
McDougal, Myres S., cited, 136
McDuffie, George, 59
McFall, Jack K., quoted, 123
McGranery, James, 97
McGrath, J. Howard, 97
McKinley, William, 37, 38
McMillan, Thomas S., 120
Macon, Nathaniel, 59
Madison, James, 28, 30, 148
MAKING TREATIES AND OTHER INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS, John W. Bricker, 134–144
Malloy, William M., cited, 24
MANSFIELD, MIKE, The Meaning of the Term "Advice and Consent," 127–133 Mansfield, Mike, 63, 74
  cited, 28, 61, 62, 121
  quoted, 81
Marcy, Carl M., 63
Marshall, George C., 47, 101, 122
Marshall, John, 36
  quoted, 63
Martin, Joseph W., Jr., 46, 74
Mason, James M., 59
Mathews, John M.
  cited, 145, 150, 153, 154, 155
  quoted, 154
Mattas, Helen, 73
MEANING OF THE TERM "ADVICE AND CONSENT," THE, Mike Mansfield, 127–133
MERROW, CHESTER E., United States Leadership in a Divided World, 1–10 Merrow, Chester E., 125
  cited, 121
Mexican War
  and territorial expansion, 33
Miller, David Hunter, cited, 148
Miller, John F., 59
Minorities, see National minorities in U. S.
Monroe, James, 32, 150
Monroe Doctrine
  congressional attitude toward, 31–32
Moore, John Bassett, cited, 29, 31, 32, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38
Morgan, John T., 59
Morris, Richard B., editor, 22
Mundt, Karl E., 74
Mutual Security Act
  amendments to, resulting from study mission, 123–124 Mutual Security Programs
  appropriations for, 70, 82

National minorities in U. S. as pressure groups, 93–95
  color interest in foreign policy, 17
Nehru, Jawaharlal, 118
Nevins, Allan, cited, 37, 38
Nigro, Felix A., cited, 53
NOBLEMAN, ELI E., Financial Aspects of Congressional Participation in Foreign Relations, 145–164
Nonpartisanship, see Bipartisanship in foreign policy Northeastern boundary dispute, 33

Oberholtzer, Ellis Paxson, cited, 35, 36
Olcott, Charles S., cited, 38
Olney, Richard, 37
Oregon Country, dispute over, 33

Party leadership in Congress, 18
  importance of, 16–17
  See also Bipartisanship in foreign policy
PARTY RESPONSIBILITY FOR FOREIGN POLICY, John M. Vorys, 165–171
Pearson, Drew, 95
Pegler, Westbrook, 95
Pepper, Claude, 44
Perkins, Dexter, cited, 32
Peters, Richard, cited, 25
Peterson, J. Hardin, 44
Philippine Islands
  reluctantly retained by U. S., 38 Pickens, Francis Wilkinson, quoted, 151
Pierce, Franklin, 34
Pitman, Key, 59
PLACE OF CONGRESS IN FOREIGN RELATIONS, THE, Ernest S. Griffith, 11–21

Pleven, René, 118
Polk, James K., 27, 33, 166
  quoted, 100, 106
Porter, Stephen Geyer, 156
Pratt, Julius W., cited, 30, 36, 37, 38
Presidential-congressional power deemed superior to Constitution, 135
Press, the, as influencing foreign policy, 95 Press conferences
  inadequate for guidance of Congress, 111–112
Pressure groups influencing foreign policy
  China Lobby and Institute of Pacific Relations, 94–95 economic, professional and civic, veterans, religious, 93 ethnic, 93–94 individuals, 95–96
  press and columnists, 95 proper function of, 98–99 regulation of, 96–98 techniques of, 96
Public opinion
  disapproved Jay Treaty, 29 expressed re dismissal of MacArthur, 96 informed by congressional hearings, speeches, and publicity, 13–14, 64, 79–80 represented by Congress, 5, 9, 67, 69, 96, 172–173 represented by Executive, 173 resented British and French attitudes during Civil War, 34 support necessary to foreign policy, 16, 20 unprecedented interest in foreign affairs, 16–17, 54, 67 wanted recognition of Texan independence, 32 Public relations of Committee on Foreign Affairs, 79–80 of Committee on Foreign Relations, 64

Rabaut, Louis Charles, 102
Radhakrishnan, Sarvapalli, 63, 118
Ramspeck, Robert, 46
Rayburn, Sam, 46
Recognition policy, see Congress and recognition policy
Reed, James, 56
Reed, Stanley F., 97
Religious pressure groups, 93
RICHARDS, JAMES P., The House of Representatives in Foreign Affairs, 66–72 Richards, James P., 73
  cited, 121
Richardson, James D., cited, 27, 28, 29, 30, 33, 36, 37, 147, 149, 150, 152, 154
Rives, George Lockhart, cited, 32, 33
Rives, William C., 59
Rix, Carl B., cited, 140
Roche, John P., quoted, 135, 144
Rodes, Robert E., 95
  quoted, 96
Rogers, Edith Nourse, 102
Roosevelt, Eleanor, 95
Roosevelt, Franklin D., 42, 43, 56, 67, 111, 135, 167
Root, Elihu, 154
Ruark, Robert C., 95
Ryden, George H., cited, 36

Salisbury (Lord), 37
Sanford, Nathan, 59
Savelle, Max H., cited, 22
Sayre, Francis B., quoted, 142
Schweppe, Alfred J., cited, 144
Senate (U. S.) and appointment of diplomats, 49, 53, 61, 131
  and the treaty-making power, 49–53, 129–130 foreign policy procedure, 55 original concept in creation of, 51 prominent figures in, 55–56
  traditionally isolationist, 56 work load of, in foreign affairs, 53–55
  See also "Advice and consent of the Senate"
SENATE IN FOREIGN RELATIONS, THE, Guy M. Gillette, 49–57
Senate Joint Resolution 1, see Bricker amendment
Sevier, Ambrose H., 59
Seward, William H., 35
Shakespeare, William, quoted, 8
Sherman, John, 59
Sherwood, Robert E., quoted, 167
Smathers, George A., 74
SMITH, H. ALEXANDER, Information and Intelligence for Congress, 114–119
Smith, H. Alexander, 62, 63
Sokolsky, George, 95
Soviet Union, attempt to sever diplomatic relations with, 157 Spanish-American War background and results of, 37–38
Sparkman, John, 63
Stalin, Joseph, quoted, 5
Stassen, Harold E., quoted, 125
Stefan, Karl, 102
Stokes, Thomas L., 95
Stone, William J., 59
Storey, Moorfield, cited, 34
Study missions, see Congressional travel abroad Sumner, Charles, 34, 35, 36, 59

Taft, Robert A., 63
Taft, William H., cited, 153
Tansill, Charles C., cited, 35
Tariff dilemma, 87–88

Tazewell, Littleton W., 59 Territorial expansion, congressional attitudes toward
in early U. S., 32–34, 35
in late nineteenth century, 36–38
Texas
preadmission controversy regarding, 32–33
Thomas, Elbert D., 43, 102, 176
Thompson, Dorothy, 95
Thorpe, Francis Newton, cited, 24
Tobey, Charles W., 62
Treaties
Alaska purchase, 35, 152
amendment of, is a senatorial power, 51, 130 commercial congressional position on, 153–154
provisions of Articles of Confederation regarding, 24 with Great Britain (1815), 31
congressional position on, 146–149, 152–153
deemed superior to Constitution, 136
from Reconstruction to 1900, 36–38
Genocide Convention not ratified by U. S., 138
Jay Treaty, 29, 148–149
Louisiana Purchase, 30
negotiated during the Confederation, 24–25
now tend to be multilateral, 138 proposed, for purchase of Danish West Indies, 35 supreme over congressional laws, 136
supreme over state laws, 25, 26 Treaty of Ghent, 30 with Algiers, 146–148
with France (1778), 23–24
abrogated by Congress (1798), 29 Treaty making hindered by doctrine of congressional omnipotence, 139–140 hindered by doubt of constitutional supremacy, 137–138 Treaty-making power
constitutional provisions for, 11, 49–52, 128
control of, sought by Bricker amendment, 134–144 executive initiative in, 129, 130–131 liable to abuse, 136 senatorial restraint on, 51, 129–130
See also "Advice and consent of the Senate"
Treuba, Andres Martinez, 121
Truman, Harry S., 56, 101, 110, 160, 166, 170
Tucker, Henry St. George, cited, 148, 153

United Nations
Communist China membership in, opposed by U. S., 163 congressional endorsement of U. S. participation in, 46–47 veto power in, 56
United States
comparative youth of, 1 crucial periods in history of, 2–3 swift rise of, to world power, 1–2 United States contributions to international organizations congressional control over, 160–163 United States leadership established by World War II, 100, 158 reluctance of U. S. to assume, 20
UNITED STATES LEADERSHIP IN A DIVIDED WORLD, Chester E. Merrow, 1–10

Van Buren, Martin, 33
Vandenberg, Arthur H., 46, 56, 59, 102, 159, 169
quoted, 45, 61, 107, 168
Vargas, Getulio Dornellas, 121
Vattel, Emmerich von, cited, 142
Veterans as a pressure group, 93
VORYS, JOHN M., Party Responsibility for Foreign Policy, 165–171
Vorys, John M., quoted, 81, 121

Wadsworth, James W., 74
War of 1812, 30
Warmaking power vested in Congress, 11
Washington, George, 2, 7, 28, 29, 52, 100, 106, 129, 141, 146, 147, 148, 149
Washington's Proclamation of Neutrality (1793), 28–29
Webster, Daniel, quoted, 150
Welch, Richard J., 44
Westphal, Albert C. F., 41
cited, 145, 152, 153, 156, 157
Whitaker, Arthur Preston, cited, 25, 31
White, Leonard D., cited, 145, 148, 149
White, Wallace H., 44, 46, 102
Wilcox, Francis O., 62, 63
WILEY, ALEXANDER, The Committee on Foreign Relations, 58–65
Wiley, Alexander, 59, 63
Wilkes, Charles, 34
Wilkins, William, 59
Williams, Benjamin H., cited, 145, 154, 156
Wilson, Woodrow, 56, 92, 154, 166
cited, 69
Windom, William, 59
Wolverton, Charles A., 44
Wood, George C., cited, 23, 24
Wright, Quincy
cited, 145, 153
quoted, 154

Zablocki, Clement J., 125
cited, 121

INDEX

Almond, Gabriel, cited, 109, 110, 114
Anstey, Vera, cited, 69
Appropriations process in Congress, 79–81
Armaments control
  atomic and other armaments merged in, 20–21, 23 question of limitation or prohibition, 23 Atomic energy and human values, 127–133
  international control Acheson-Lilienthal plan for, 16–20, 24
    difficulties of, 25
    lack of interest in, 16
    merged with control of conventional armaments, 20–21, 23
    suggested plan for, 24–25
    U. S. public not hopeful for, 109 peaceful uses of
    and cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts, 87–88 envisioned by Iowa planners, 130 public attitudes toward, 112–113 philosophic discussion of, 127–133 public indifference toward, 109–117 public knowledge of, 108–109
Atomic Energy and the Democratic Process, Robert A. Dahl, 1–6
Atomic Energy Commission (U. S.) and the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, 76–81 dispute over fellowship program of, 94 personnel security program assets and liabilities of, 103–107 standards and procedures, 101–103
  reactor development program of, 41–42 recommends legislation favoring private enterprise, 43 Atomic energy industry alternative policies within, 5–6, 43
  breeder reactors nature and advantage of, 24, 46–47, 59
    types of, 37–39
  business-government relations in, 42–44, 82–89 contractor system of operation of, 82–89 control of reactors, 36–37
  costs (probable) of nuclear power plants, 40–41, 51–60 dual purpose reactors
    defined, 45
    economic feasibility of, 45–49
    versus single purpose reactors, 5, 39–40, 45, 50 economic considerations in, 5, 38–40, 45–61, 64–66 future plans for, 42–44
  government plants and laboratories, 19, 25, 41 question of economic location of, 65–66 heat removal considerations, 37 peacetime aspects of, 87–88
  plant designs, 37–39, 51
  private enterprise in desirable, 47–48
    favored by Atomic Energy Commission, 43 reactor development
    Atomic Energy Commission program for, 41–42 industrial group studies of and proposals for, 42, 43, 88 relative importance of breeders and converters, 37–39 research contracts in, 122 single purpose reactors cost elements, 51–60
    economic feasibility of, 60–61
    plant designs, 51
    versus dual purpose reactors, 5, 39–40, 45, 50 See also Nuclear power (industrial) Atomic energy personnel adaptability of, to various installations, 87–88
  espionage among, 100–101
  risks connected with, 100, 106–107
  security screening of, 93–94, 100–107, 120–121
Atomic energy policy alternatives to, 5–6
  as influenced by Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, 76–79 democratic control of, lacking, 1–6, 23, 99 issues involved in, 3–4 question of public discussion of, 4–5, 96–97 question of uniqueness of the subject, 97–99
  See also Secrecy regarding atomic energy
Atomic power (industrial), see Atomic energy industry; Nuclear power (industrial) Atomic warfare, see Nuclear warfare

Barnard, Chester, 18
Barnett, H. G., cited, 67
Barth, Alan, cited, 90
Baruch, Bernard M., 17, 18, 20
Blackett, P. M. S., cited, 71
Bohr, Niels, 121, 122
  cited, 124
Bontecou, Eleanor, cited, 100, 103
Boulding, Kenneth E., cited, 129

Bricker, John W., 128
Brodie, Bernard, 3
  cited, 15
  editor, 10
BROWN, RALPH S., JR., Personnel Security, 100–107
Brown, Ralph S., Jr., cited, 2, 104
Bush, G. P., editor, 121
Bush, Vannevar, 21
Byrnes, James F., 18

Case, Francis, cited, 94
CAVERS, DAVID F., The Economic Consequences of Atomic Attack, 27–34
Cavers, David F., cited, 3
CISLER, WALKER L., Economic Feasibility: The Dual Purpose Reactor, 45–49
Cisler, Walker L., cited, 5
Cohen, Karl, cited, 55, 58
Cole, W. Sterling, 79
  cited, 90
Condon, R. L., 105
CONGRESS AND THE ATOM, Henry M. Jackson, 76–81
Congressional-executive relations, see Joint Committee on Atomic Energy CONTRACTOR SYSTEM, THE, Richard A. Tybout, 82–89
Crotty, Homer D., cited, 27

DAHL, ROBERT A., Atomic Energy and the Democratic Process, 1–6
Darsky, Benjamin J., cited, 112, 115
Davis, Kingsley, cited, 73
Dean, Gordon, 97
  cited, 55, 90
Democratic process lacking in atomic energy policy, 1–6, 23, 99
Dewey, John, cited, 133
Douvan, Elizabeth, cited, 2
DOUVAN, ELIZABETH, and STEPHEN B. WITHEY, Some Attitudinal Consequences of Atomic Energy, 108–117
Dual purpose reactors, see Atomic energy industry
DuBridge, L. A., cited, 119
Dulles, Allen W., 21
Durham, Carl T., 79

Eberhart, Sylvia, cited, 108, 110, 111
ECONOMIC CONSEQUENCES OF ATOMIC ATTACK, THE, David F. Cavers, 27–34
ECONOMIC FEASIBILITY: THE DUAL PURPOSE REACTOR, Walker L. Cisler, 45–49
ECONOMIC FEASIBILITY: THE SINGLE PURPOSE NUCLEAR POWER PLANT, George L. Weil, 50–61 ECONOMIC TECHNOLOGY OF NUCLEAR POWER, James A. Lane, 35–44
Einstein, Albert, 122
Eisenhower, Dwight D., 97, 102
  cited, 90
Epictetus, 128
Executive-congressional relations, see Joint Committee on Atomic Energy

Fassett, John D., cited, 104
Fisher, Burton R., cited, 112, 115
Fisher, Emil, 121
Forrestal, James V., 95
Fox, William T. R., 18
FRASE, ROBERT W., International Control of Nuclear Weapons, 16–26
Frase, Robert W., cited, 3, 16
Frear, J. Allen, Jr., 34
Fuchs, Klaus, 101, 102, 107

Gary, Howard C., cited, 60
Gauss, Karl Friedrich, 121
Gellhorn, Walter, cited, 90, 102
Gilfillan, S. C., cited, 67
Gillespie, Tyrone, quoted, 106
Ginzberg, E., cited, 119
Gitlin, Irving J., cited, 114
Gold, Harry, 101
Greenglass, David, 101

Hahn, Otto, 121
Hart, Hornell, cited, 67
Hattery, L. H., editor, 121
Hickenlooper, Bourke B., 79, 94, 101
Hitler, Adolf, 25
Hollis, E. V., cited, 118, 119
Holmes, Oliver Wendell (Justice), 78
Hook, Sidney, editor, 132
HUMAN VALUES IN THE ATOMIC AGE, Wayne A. R. Leys, 127–133

Industrial location
  as affected by nuclear power, 62–64, 75
International control of atomic energy, see Atomic energy
INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS, Robert W. Frase, 16–26
Isard, Walter, cited, 69, 70, 75
ISARD, WALTER, and ROBERT A. KAVESH, Some Economic Consequences of Nuclear Power, 62–66

JACKSON, HENRY M., Congress and the Atom, 76–81
Jackson, Henry M., cited, 1
Johnson, Joseph E., 21
Joint Commitee on Atomic Energy considering increased industrial participation in atomic energy, 90 function of, 76–77
  information of, 76–77, 96

investigated AEC's fellowship program in 1949, 94 procedure and leadership of, 79 seeks expansion of atomic effort, 78–79 wisdom of, 77–78
Jordan, George R., 101

Kallen, H. M., editor, 132
KAVESH, ROBERT A., see Isard, Walter, jt. author
Kay, Lillian Wald, cited, 114
Kelsey, Carl, memorial for, vii
Knight, Frank H., cited, 86
KNOWLAND, WILLIAM F., cited, 94
KNOWLTON, A. E., cited, 52

Laboratories for nuclear power development, 41
Landis, John W., 3
LANE, JAMES A., Economic Technology of Nuclear Power, 35–44
Lane, James A., cited, 38
Lapp, Ralph E., cited, 90, 101
Leonard, Olen E., cited, 69
LEYS, WAYNE A. R., Human Values in the Atomic Age, 127–133
Leys, Wayne A. R., cited, 4 Lilienthal, David E.
cited, 90
quoted, 130
Lloyd, Glen A., cited, 85
Loyalty programs, see Atomic energy personnel

MacArthur, Douglas, 95
McKeon, Richard, cited, 133
McLain, S., cited, 38
McMahon, Brien, 79, 95, 97
cited, 90, 96
May, Allan Nunn, 100, 102
Meier, R. L., cited, 2
MEIER, R. L., and E. RABINOWITCH, Scientists Before and After the Bomb, 118–126
Meitner, Lise, 121
Mendeleev, D. I., 122
Metzner, Charles A., cited, 112, 115
Miller, D. F., cited, 114
Miller, E. C., cited, 56
Miller, John Perry, cited, 85
Millis, Walter, editor, 95
Moore, Lyman S., cited, 131

Nationalism: reversion to, in U. S., 128
Nehru, Jawaharlal, quoted, 131
Newman, James R., cited, 16, 101, 105, 106
Newton, Isaac, 122
Nuclear power (industrial) as a social innovation, 67–68
economic feasibility of, 45–49, 60–61, 62
economic production of, remote, 18–19, 23 impact of, on industrial location, 62–64, 75 manner of formation of, 35 prospect for acceptance of in industrialized areas, 68–69, 74 in underdeveloped areas, 69–74 reactor components, 35–36
uneconomic for underdeveloped economies, 64–65
See also Atomic energy industry
Nuclear warfare
as affecting business and the legal profession, 28–31 bomb carriers, Russian and U. S. compared, 21–22 defense priorities in, 14–15 deterrence of, questioned, 15, 22 feared by scientists, 125–126 protective measures against economic damage, 28, 30, 32–34 target systems, 9–13
theoretical discussion of, 7–13
U. S. public attitudes toward, 110–112
U. S. vulnerability in, 22
Nuclear weapons superiority in weapons advantages and limitations of, 7–15 assumed for United States, 7–8, 21
U. S. stockpile of, 21

Oppenheimer, J. Robert, 21, 25
cited, 90
quoted, 97

PALFREY, JOHN GORHAM, The Problem of Secrecy, 90–99
Palfrey, John Gorham, cited, 2, 4
Pasteur, Louis, 121
Personnel screening, see Atomic energy personnel
PERSONNEL SECURITY, Ralph S. Brown, Jr., 100–107
Philosopher's view of atomic energy, 127–133
Planck, Max Karl Ernst Ludwig, 122
Plato, 121, 132
Pontecorvo, Bruno, 101, 102
Popper, Karl R., cited, 133
Population and economic development, 73–74
Power (industrial), see Atomic energy industry; Nuclear power (industrial)
PROBLEM OF SECRECY, THE, John Gorham Palfrey, 90–99
Public opinion
regarding atomic energy, 108–117
regarding likelihood of war, 110
Putnam, Palmer C., cited, 59

RABINOWITCH, E., see Meier, R. L., jt. author Rabinowitch, E., cited, 2
Radhakrishnan, Sarvapalli, quoted, 131
Richey, John, 21
Rosenberg, Julius and Ethel, 101
Rutherford, Ernest, 121

Schilpp, Paul Arthur, editor, 132
Schneider, Herbert, cited, 132
Scientific research
  camouflaged support of, 123 conducted largely in industry and government, 118–119 conducted under contract, 122 expenditures for, 119
Scientists attitudes of toward atomic energy, 114, 125–126 changed attitudes of, 123–126 changes in organization of, 121–122 economic status of, 119–120
  employed largely in industry and government, 118–119 growth in numbers of, 118–119 political activities of, 124–125
  security screening of, 120–121
SCIENTISTS BEFORE AND AFTER THE BOMB, R. L. Meier and E. Rabinowitch, 118–126
Scott, W. A., cited, 114 Secrecy regarding atomic energy as affecting congressional-executive relations, 76 basic factor in, 90–91, 97–98
  costs of, 2–3
  discontent with, 90, 96
  in international relations, 95–96 provided for in Atomic Energy Act, 91–92, 100 question of necessity for, 4–5 question of public discussion, 4–5, 96–97 runs counter to deterrence of war, 10, 15 security measures, 92–97
  signs of change in, 90, 97
  special features requiring, 98–99 within the government, 94–95
  See also Atomic energy personnel
Senate two-thirds rule
  weakness of, 128
Shapiro, T. R., cited, 119
Simmel, Georg, cited, 133
Single purpose reactors, see Atomic energy industry
Skobeltsyn, Dimitri V., indirectly quoted, 19
Smith, T. Lynn, cited, 69
Smith, T. V., cited, 132
Social organization and nuclear power, 67–74, 116–117
Socrates, 121
SOME ATTITUDINAL CONSEQUENCES OF ATOMIC ENERGY, Elizabeth Douvan and Stephen B. Withey, 108–117
SOME ECONOMIC CONSEQUENCES OF NUCLEAR POWER, Walter Isard and Robert A. Kavesh, 62–66
SOME SOCIOLOGICAL CONSEQUENCES OF ATOMIC POWER, Vincent Heath Whitney, 67–75
Stalin, Joseph, 17, 22
Stoll, Arthur, 121
Straus, Donald B., cited, 131
SUPERIORITY IN NUCLEAR WEAPONS: ADVANTAGES AND LIMITATIONS, Arnold Wolfers, 7–15
Swain, P. W., cited, 58

Targets for nuclear bombardment business centers, 27–28 cities, 9–10
  in third countries, 12–13
  nonnuclear war industries, 11–12
  nuclear power, 10–11 tactical targets in the battle zone, 12
  See also Nuclear warfare
Thompson, J. J., 121
Truman, Harry S., 18, 96
TYBOUT, RICHARD A., The Contractor System, 82–89
Tydings, Millard E., cited, 93

Underdeveloped areas
  nuclear power not economically feasible for, 64–65
  nuclear power socially unacceptable to, 69–74

Vandenberg, Arthur H., 94, 95
Vandenberg, Arthur H., Jr., cited, 95
Vandenberg, Hoyt S., quoted, 8
Vorys, John M., 20

War expectancy high among U. S. public, 110
WEIL, GEORGE L., Economic Feasibility: The Single Purpose Nuclear Power Plant, 50–61
Weil, George L., cited, 5, 50, 60, 61
Whetten, Nathan L., cited, 69–70
WHITNEY, VINCENT HEATH, Some Sociological Consequences of Atomic Power, 67–75
Whitney, Vincent Heath, cited, 69, 70, 75
Willstätter, Richard, 121
Withey, Stephen B., cited, 114
WITHEY, STEPHEN B., see Douvan, Elizabeth, jt. author
Withey, Stephen B., cited, 2
WOLFERS, ARNOLD, Superiority in Nuclear Weapons: Advantages and Limitations, 7–15
Wolfers, Arnold, cited, 2, 3
Wood, Helen, cited, 119
Wright, Orville and Wilbur, 78

Zinn, W. H., cited, 41, 55